WE NOMINATE

Irving Dilliard, a newspaperman's newspaperman and a remarkable teacher of writing, who at a time of life when retirement beckons many is having a "field day" in meeting the demands of a second career. This 65-year old native of Collingsville, Ill., where he still maintains his permanent home, is the first "continuing professor" to hold Princeton University's Ferris Professorship in Journalism and Public Relations. To this distinctive chair, more concerned with the impact of journalism on democratic government than with the mechanics of the profession, Dilliard brought over three decades of experience as one of the country's best-known editors.

In 1960, three years before he accepted a one-year appointment as Visiting Professor and four years before he was named full professor at Princeton, Dilliard retired as editorial page editor of the prestigious St. Louis Post-Dispatch. At that time, as he capped some 33 years with the Post-Dispatch with his brilliant contributions to its editorial columns, it was pointed out that he had written at least 10,000 pieces in 12 years, had helped blaze new trails in the fields of constitutional law and civil rights and had needled staid St. Louis into a semblance of action in areas of controversy.

Dilliard, who in his lectures here and elsewhere has stressed how the journalist assists in the process of policy formulation and execution in both the legislative and executive branches of democratic government through the communication of information and the reflection of public opinion, is a lifelong student of, and a frequently cited authority on, the U.S. Supreme Court. Strongly opposed to President Nixon's nomination of G. Harrold Carswell, he has published such definitive works as "One Man's Stand for Freedom: Mr. Justice Black and the Bill of Rights," "The Spirit of Liberty: The Papers and Addresses of Learned Hand" and "Justice Brandeis: Great American."

In years gone by, for service to human rights, Dilliard, Senior Fellow of Princeton's Council of the Humanities, received both the St. Louis B'nai B'rith Award and the Flora Lasker Award of the New York Civil Liberties Union. In 1959 the American Bar Association singled him out for his outstanding contributions to public understanding of the judicial system, while a decade later, in the company of the executive editor of the Louisville Times and Courier-Journal and the former chief of Newsweek's Washington Bureau, he was honored with the William Allen White Foundation Award for exemplifying the ideals of that eminent journalist.

A member of the Class of 1927 at the University of Illinois, and a Nieman Fellow at Harvard in the 1930's in the formative years of a pioneering program, Dilliard in the Middle West will long be remembered as a Trustee of the University of Illinois, a role in which he earned the title of "The Great Dissenter." Following World War II service in Europe with the Supreme Headquarters, Allied Expeditionary Force, he was in charge of information control for the allied military government in Bavaria, supervising the re-establishment and revitalization of German newspapers and earning decorations from the U.S., British and French governments.

For never hesitating — in the highest traditions of American journalism and a broadly based liberalism — to speak to his convictions; for feeling that the "generation gap" adds new dimensions to the excitement and challenges of teaching in a university today; for his achievements in two closely allied professions; he is

STATE WANTS TRACT

For Battlefield Park. After keeping everyone in suspense for months, the state's Department of Conservation and Economic Development has decided to take the Weller tract all of it for an addition to Battlefield Park.

Joseph Trunier, head of the Princeton Institute of the Forest and Recreation, has informed Princeton Township officials of the state's decision. It is considered "in the public interest." Mr. Trunier stated, to secure the land for Battlefield Park.

His department will negotiate with the institute for additional land which owns the land, hoping for action by mid-summer, Mr. Trunier said.

The state's decision amounts to a compromise, according to attorneys, although Morgan C. Morgan Jr., business manager of the Institute, said this week on learning of the decision, "I don't think the door is slammed shut."

The Institute bought the Weller tract for faculty members — in fact, several plans: "We're now up to number 13-C1," Mr. Morgan said ruefully — which it hoped would meet the approval of Township planners and neighbors.

The acreage lies off Mercer Road near the junction with Quaker Bridge Road, and abuts the property of the Society of Friends. The Institute has made common cause with battlefield historians and conservationists to press the state into buying up the property.

"I am surprised at the decision of the state to feel the need for the entire Weller tract," Mr. Morgan said in a statement. "We had frequent discussions with the Princeton Battlefield Committee and other interested citizens, and we had hoped that a compromise solution could be reached. We will continue our efforts in this direction."

A. Reeves Hicks, who has represented the Institute, estimates cost of the land at $150,000 to $175,000.

HOUSING REPORT

Surveys and Proposals. Princeton's community-wide housing survey will be formally announced and explained next Tuesday in press conference to be held by the Township which will undertake the survey.

At Township Committee's public session next Monday night, Theodore Vial, president of Princeton Community Housing, Inc., will give a progress report on low-and-middle income housing.

Meanwhile, a Borough official has suggested formation of a co-operative development corporation to buy up available land or multiple housing.

SYMBOLIC ACTION. The directional sign for the Princeton Inn has been stood at the corner of Mercer Street and University Place was removed last week, forecasting the closing of the Inn in June. The Inn has been on the Princeton scene since 1924. (Staff Photo)

PCB. Monday night, Mr. Vial is expected to tell Committee that PCB plans to use all 200 lots authorized by the Township for low-income public housing, arranged with the Borough's Housing Authority, which is the Township's agent in construction of low-income public housing.

So far, there are no architectural drawings. The site is still a land-locked 23 acres between Terhune and Mt. Lucas.

Arts Calendar for May

The Arts Council of Princeton presents its listing of outstanding events for May page 12. TOWN TIGERS: A report on the achievements, letters, plays, concerts and similar events of interest, it is sponsored this month by Palmer Square, Inc., and the Princeton Bank and Trust Co.

"We feel there's a great social and economic advantage in economic mix of low and middle-income housing," Mr. Vial states. "The 50 low-income units will be mixed with the rest, and it may not even be the same 50 units all the time."

If a family's income rises above the eligibility limit for public housing, he explains, the family wouldn't necessarily have to move out. The apartment might simply be removed from the low-income designation.

Meanwhile, a Borough official has suggested formation of a co-operative development corporation to buy up available land or multiple housing.

Alice Male has proposed a co-operative development corporation to acquire remaining parcels of land, plus air-rights over the land, for building lots for construction of whatever kind of housing the survey shows the Princeton community to need.

Individuals and groups could buy lots to share in development, or might contribute the land themselves as their share.

The co-operative would keep control, so that the mix of young-old, high-low income could be maintained, Mrs. Male proposes.

She suggests that the corporate structure of Princeton Community Housing could be altered to accommodate the development corporation. If possible, she suggests, state money might not be needed.

Survey. The Borough-Township housing survey will be conducted by Princeton Planning Board by Dr. George Sternlieb, director of the Center for Urban Social Science Research at Rutgers.

Dr. Sternlieb, joined by Township Mayor John D. Wallace and Borough Mayor Robert W. Cawley; Planning Board chairman Hans K. Sander and vice-chairman Norman Williams, will describe the form the survey will take.

MEDAL

(Got a Fuse?) A mixture of media spilled and swirled around the Community Party Room Tuesday night as students began to take a mid-meeting break to find out whether that medium really is the message.

It seems to be.

The occasion was a display of media ("audio-visual material") in the old fashioned term used in Princeton public schools. Students from grades one through high school Co-ordinator were Mrs. Jean McDonough, who's in charge of media in the schools, and Kenneth Powers, science teacher in the Middle School.

Unaccustomed to such displays of power, the gym temporarily blew a fuse. But once that was rectified through the power company's quick work, the slide projector and the dry projector turned off, and making everybody with high-powered equipment turn around.

Pictures, in one exhibit, Middle School boys in a photography class proudly demonstrated the sign over their table: "We took them, we developed them, we printed them." Pans and an enlarger showed how it was done. At another table, third-grade girls were busily making live art films by coloring the bare film itself with special crayons.

Rectified through the power company's quick work, the slide projector and the dry projector turned off, and making everybody with high-powered equipment turn around.

A busily working student, his mother holding 35mm camera held a close-up frame, shot colored photographs from a National Geographic article to illustrate the development of the silk worm in its various stages of life.

In the four and one-half minute presentation, Mr. Cook gives six readings on "the black experience." The presentation is called "A Black Experience Rooted and will be shown throughout the school system. Mr. Mansier said his students worked four hours to produce exactly the four and one-half minutes they had and Mr. Cook felt was "right."

A slide projector which can be used with tape showed the first sequence of a "Presentation" project in Black History. It can be used with a stereo tape recorder, synchronized and automatic. Boys and girls from the youngest grades displayed small tape recorders attached to telephone. Put on the earphones, switch on the recorder and a Middle School student's voice reads slowly from a first-grade primer ("now turn the page . . .") giving a helpful push to a first-grader who's having reading difficulties.

Middle School youngsters who may themselves be having trouble with reading, the morale boost from helping the little ones, teachers explained.

Departing from the electronic, the exhibit included a big table of tactile math aids: sleek Culpeper rods, colorful geometric shapes, as geometry itself; the "Vector" game — all of them from the Math-Audio-Visual Media Center at Valley Road.

About 50 students demonstrated the equipment and took part in the evening.

TRUSTEES WILL MEET

At Adult School Session. The first organizational meeting of the Adult School Board of Trustees will take place at the Public Library on Monday at 8:15 p.m.

Mrs. James J. Johnson, newly-elected chairman will preside. The meeting will deal with the appointment of permanent committee and selection of the curriculum to be offered in the fall term which will start on Sept. 1. Mr. Johnson, who was elected curriculum chairman at the annual meeting, will list the full roster of courses and teachers and assign new members to various curriculum sub-committees.

Mrs. Johnson will present new candidates to be considered by the nominating committee. New trustees who will join the board that evening are: Professor A. A. Ausen, Richard Hough, Mrs. Henry Powner and Mrs. Ruth R. Ritter.

Other officers who were elected at the meeting were Mrs. Ernest Lynton, secretary; Mrs. Dwight North, treasurer; Mrs. Elmira Alpert, nominating chairman.

Mrs. Johnson has asked that parents with suggestions for possible future courses contact her so that their ideas may be acted upon wherever possible.

PRIMARY RACE COMING

Far GOP. Congressman and an other from East Windsor Township have filed for their party's nomination for U.S. Congressmen from the Fourth District (Mercer, Hunterdon, Sussex and Warren counties).

The Princetonian has learned the race has not yet been won. To Thursday's deadline, is the Rev. Robert G. Andrus, of 83 Allison Road. He will oppose Edward Costigan, magistrate in East Windsor, in nomination on the Republican ticket.

The primary election will be held Tuesday, June 2. The winner will oppose Frank Thompson, Jr., Democratic incumbent for the past 16 years.

TOPICS Of The Town

WHO'S RUNNING?
Seven candidates for next fall's municipal elections are now full; in fact, the Township Republican slate is overflowing and there will be a contest in the at-large 2 primary.

The Princeton Organization Republican, endorsed by Republicans in regulars, will be Charles E. Meyers, 90 Dodds Lane, a newcomer to Township politics.

His opponent will be William H. Cherry, who has filed as a "Princeton Township Republican." This means there will not be the "free primary" Dr. Cherry had said last week he still hoped for. In a solar system where party lines are clear, candidates would be under the Regular Organization Republican label.

Republican officials in the Township emphasize that they feel Dr. Cherry should make the race, even though Mr. Meyer is their candidate. "We told him we thought he ought to run, if that's what he felt he wanted to do," said one.

Township Democrats getting in just under the wire for last Thursday's filing deadline, have chosen Junius J. Bleiman, 57 Nassau Street, Princeton, graduate director of the graduate program at the Woodrow Wilson School, Princeton University.

There is only one seat available on Township Committee and Mr. Bleiman will meet the needs of the Meyer-Cherry coalition.

In the Borough, the Republicans, also going right down to the deadline hour, selected Alex Wojciechowicz, 100 Nassau Avenue, to be the running mate of Charles L. Taggart, 57 Cleveland Lane, whose candidacy was announced last week.

Their opponents for the two seats on Borough Council will be Democrats Joseph P. Moore, 14 Bank Street, and Martin P. Lombardo, 329 Nassau. Their candidacy was announced last week also.

Mr. Meyer, in the Township, has received the endorsement of Mayor John D. Wallace, and outgoing Committeeman William L. Wilson.

"I strongly endorse Mr. Mey-

Charles E. Meyer

Junius J. Bleiman

Alex Wojciechowicz

er," stated Mayor Wallace. "I'm keenly disappointed that Mr. Wilson decided not to run again, but in Mr. Meyer, we have an extremely well-qualified candidate who is progressive."

Mr. Wojciechowicz, a former member of the Board of Education, is now the head of the Department of Education, and has been a member of the Board of Education for three years.

Mr. Wilson also noted the present composition of Committee, with its 3-2 Republican majority.

If a general win in November, he pointed out, Mr. Wallace might not again be elected mayor. In the Township, the "mayor" is not elected as such; he is chosen by Committee members from their own number.

The Democrat's candidate, Mr. Bleiman, was graduated in 1942 from the College of the City of New York. He holds a B.S. from West Point and a B.S. from Princeton. In the Army, he was a first lieutenant in the Air Corps. He retired. He was assistant for strategic planning, Policy Planning Staff, Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense, serving in the Pentagon from 1953 to 1960.

Mr. Bleiman returned to the Woodrow Wilson School in July, 1968, at the same time he rejoined the Army.

Mr. Wojciechowicz was graduated from Princeton University in 1961 with a degree in aeronautical engineering. He is active in Republican politics and has been a committeeman in his district for three years.

Mr. Wojciechowicz owns his own business. Also, he is a manufacturer of hardware, electronic, and insulation products.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS
In Board of Education meetings at Princeton High School, the PHS will be handled from now on by a seven-member Grievance Committee to be chosen by lot.

Volunteers who would like to serve as members of the committee (not necessary to have children in PHS) should write Peter Bruce, 77 Longview Drive, or call Peter—473-8073, by May 11.

The grievance procedure was outlined Tuesday night by young Bruce at the regular Board of Education meeting. Besides the Grievance Committee, the Board committee will have three students and two faculty members.

It will consider problems that have not been solved by discussion between the student and guidance counselor, department head, dean of faculty, the person with whom the student has the grievance, or anybody willing to serve as third party.

Cohen on Leave. Murray Cohen, principal of Johnson Park School, was granted a sabbatical for next year. He will join an advisory team touring school districts in Leicestershire, England.

In his absence, Eugene Birin-ger will be nominal principal, but day-to-day activities will be supervised by Mrs. Susan Jenkins of the Johnson Park faculty.

Mrs. Birch Retires. The board unanimously and reluctantly passed a resolution concerning the retirement of Mrs. Eunice T. Birch who has served the system for a quarter of a century. She has been secretary to William Evans, who is board secretary.

"The personal loss to me is great," said Superintendent Philip E. McPherson in comment on her resignation.

Legislation. The board unanimously voted its support of pending New Jersey legislation which would provide more state aid to local school districts.

The bill, designed to implement the report of the Bateman Committee, would add an additional $100,000,000 to the state aid for the first year of a five-year period, toward a final goal of about $150-200 million in state aid.

An "incentive" provision would bring higher aid to districts with better schools; an "equaled" provision would make sure that poor districts are cared for.

Opposition to three state proposals was expressed by a bi-partisan bill introduced by the board: (1) Governor William T. Cahill's proposal for $9.5 million in state aid to private schools. "There isn't even enough state money for public schools," observed board counsel Thomas P. Cook.

(2) A bill (Assembly 810) authorizing strikes by public employees.

A bill (Senate 450) requiring salary stops to suspended school employees until the case finally reaches settlement.

DRAFT AGE?

Register in Township Hall. Township residents who turn 18 may now register for the draft in Township Hall starting next Monday. The Borough started a similar service earlier this spring.

Mayor John D. Wallace made the announcement this week at a press conference devoted to such varied subjects as the alarm systems, the Spirit of '76, the bond market, and a new "open house" in the mayor's office on Monday nights.

Next Monday night, after he spends an hour talking it over with Township householders who stop by, the mayor will go upstairs to the police hearing room to obtain a permit for a fee to pay for purchase of 6.3 acres of flood-plain land where developers once hoped to build a 15-story luxury apartment building.

The developers, Houghton and Castro, have not so far said they will oppose the ordinance.

A new ordinance providing $20,000 for alterations to Township Hall's police department (and purchase of a new police console) may be ready for introduction.

Public hearings on The Great Road sewer assessments and the ordinance repealing a tax arrangement with Princeton University will also be held.

Under this tax agreement, the University has paid the Township the difference between taxes on multi-family buildings in the educational zone, and the actual school costs incurred by the Township for all the children who live in those apartments — all of which is in the Hibben and Ma- gie buildings.

The University's school-age population has been diluted by subsequent construction of the Lawrence Apartments and the new apartments on Harrison Street. This means the University has built up a lot of credit, and the committee that the agreement, which is set to expire in August, should be dropped. The University has said it's willing to re-negotiate, if necessary.

Mayor Wallace has assured Township home-owners that the police don't plan any change in the present burglar-alarm system.

Many home-owners look directly to Township police headquarters and police with more would do so. A commercial firm, earlier this month, alarm after another, erroneously, that the Township planned to switch the system. Not so, Mayor Wallace says. Alternatives were in the offing, but they weren't worth the expense to home-owners.

Today, Yes, The Paul's '76 year of celebrating the bicentennial of the United States, has won Township Committee endorsement, the mayor announced. See "Mailbox," page 22.

The mayor said, "It means a great deal to our town, but it's not as meaningful as a great hot world's fair in one city," the mayor observed.

Committee will write its endorsement to the New Jersey State Historical Society and to the National Bicentennial Commission.

Because of a new state law allowing five years of three-year on-bond anticaption notes, the Township's will only have to go to the bond market once this year.

The issue will be a "modest" $175,000 for the Great Road sewer. Assessment payments will pay off the bonds, so taxpayers at large won't be out a nickel.

BACK TO COURT

With Shopping Center, George Warnecke, owner of the Princeton Shopping Center, still apparently wants to build a new A & P on the site of the Bamberger's and so he's back in court with Princeton Township.

Mr. Warnecke has filed an appeal with the Appellate Division

The Shrinking Violet

*The flower on My window-sill
Can't go out yet;
The wets too chill.*

April finally warmed up showing a small plus sign for average temperature over a 30-day period. It was the first month in 1970 to do so. The word "humid" has suddenly begun to creep into weather forecasts, and the first snowfall of the season is expected by Thursday afternoon. The rain and the chill may just be a part of the weather pattern. Mayor reports a pleasant weekend is in store, with the temperature in the 70's.

At Superior Court asking for a reversal of Superior Court Justice Frank J. Kingfield's January ruling in favor of the Township.

Judge Kingfield ruled that the Township's site plan review board was legal and that any site plan to enlarge Bamberger's or to build a new A & P must be submitted to the site plan review board.

The site plan board had rejected the Center's building plans, chiefly because board members didn't think the plans allowed enough room for pedestrian and vehicular traffic. Mr. Warnecke said he had no objection to the site plan review board and took the matter to court.

If Mr. Warnecke wins his appeal, presumably he could build the Bamberger addition and the new supermarket without any control by the site plan review board.

DRIVER HURT SERIOUSLY
In the 29th year, a 54-year-old Hobart man remained in serious condition in the intensive care section at Princeton Hospital this week, following the collision of his night van truck with a car on Broad Street early Saturday morning, a quarter mile south of Cherry Valley Road.

Clarence Wiley, a delivery driver for Hobart Motor Co. on Westerly Street, sustained a fractured skull and facial bones, fractured legs and disvere lacerations of the head. The Hill delivery truck he was driving was a total loss.

Edward Esposito, 24, 9 Harris Road, the other driver, received a mild concussion and contusions to his right shoulder and head. Thirty-five sutures were used at the hospital to close lacerations of his scalp and chin. A passenger in the Esposito car, Lt. Peter Petrone, 28, of John Street, was treated for a mild concussion and released. Details of what caused the 1:54 a.m. accident were not available from Township police, who have not been able to talk to Mr. Wiley. Sgt. Jack Petrone is conducting the investigation.

Two Women Charged
Two women were charged with careless driving last week by police in separate accidents in the Borough.

Margaret S. Pease, 63, 35 Cedar Lane, was taken to the station on Nassau Street in Princeton when she pulled too far to the right to make room for oncoming traffic. The impact forced the parked car over a curb and into a tree. It was written by Helen C. Farnum, 315 Nassau.

Mrs. Pease was taken by Princeton Ambulance to the hospital where she was treated for chipped front teeth and self-inflicted teeth bites.

Pt. Charles Harris signed the consent to driving summons. The mishap occurred Saturday evening at 7:10.

Addie M. Colvin's troubles began a few minutes after 1 Friday morning when she attempted to pull from the curb on Lytle Street.

Instead of straightening her car, passed Lytle, jumped the curb and drove into a parked car. The answer, Read the Help Want ad in the Topics or Town Topics for a varied selection of opportunities open to you.

curb, police said, and struck a large tree. Mrs. Colvin, who lives at 122 Birch Avenue, refused medical attention for a contusion to her forehead and small cut on her knee.

She told the investigating officer, Sgt. John J. Bellot that she had been talking to her passenger and did not see the tree until she hit it.

SMOKE IN HOSPITAL

Minor Fire Blamed
A minor fire in a laundry chad and cloths near the first-floor dispensary caused smoke to filter up through these floors of Princeton Hospital last week.

Cause of the Thursday morning fire has not been determined. It was extinguished by the hospital's sprinkler system, although Sgt. Robert Anderson and Patrolmen Joseph Wilhelm, Thomas Michael and Bernard Lenhardt of the Borough police responded to the alarm. One piece of fire apparatus was used to help with the ventilation.

Damage, which was slight, was confined to the chad and laundry chute. No patients were evacuated.

Ladybug is for some girls, not for everyone.

Some girls aren't sweet. They loath chocolates, can't cook, and call their parents by their first names. As for that dream house in the country, it's more likely a chic city apartment. And the man is a good friend, not a boy friend. Ethereal pastel shades are out, rather deep striking hues of blue, purple, stark black. Sam or Tracy (that's their name of course) smile infrequently, but when they do, kingdoms topple. Some girls aren't sweet; they're knockout. Ladybug is for some girls, not for everyone. Shown: double breasted rain-or-shine coat of crisp navy or natural, "Yachtmens Cloth." Sizes 3-15. $45.

STUDY CENTER NEEDS MONEY: Students, yes, but a little short of cash. The Princeton Study Center, without school board financial support because of Title I cutbacks, has a modest fund drive. Tutors (young man in center) and pupils (front and back) meet each evening in the Princeton Public Library.

INCOME GAP IS $3000

For Study Center. For the first time since it was founded seven years ago, the Princeton Study Center is making a broad appeal to the community for funds to support its program. The goal is $7,000.

Due to the lack of Federal Title I funds, the Study Center has had no financial assistance from the Princeton Regional Board of Education this year. Income in the past has come from the Board and from an interested group of Princetonians.

The Princeton Study Center has provided educational services without charge in the following areas: Tutoring on an one-to-one basis; Middle School and High School students; a study hall at the Princeton Public Library with volunteers helping also;

Also, a summer study program at a special day camp giving close individual guidance to the pupils; a tutoring program for children in the lower grades on Wednesdays; and an adult literacy program, teaching basic reading and writing skills.

Most of the work is performed by volunteers. Hundreds of Princeton children have enrolled in the various programs since the Study Center first opened its doors.

The Study Center hopes to continue its services, but, to expand them. Donations may be sent to Peter M. Gross, Inc., Princeton Study Center, P.O. Box 373, Princeton.

THREE BBS ARE RELATED

Borough Police Believe. Three break-ins during the weekend were the work of same person, Borough police believe.

At 7:30 a.m. yesterday morning, they received a call from Irving Robinson, manager of the Phillips 66 Service Station on Hullfish and Witherspoon streets, that a small door leading to his office had been broken. The door, which apparently appears to have been taken, police said.

Twenty-five minutes later, an employee of Palmer Square, Inc., discovered the lower panel of the front door of Korp's Cycle Shop, 14 John Street, had been broken in.

Investigating police discovered a cash register had been smashed. Owner Frederick Kuhn reported about $20 missing and an $80 bicycle. A second bicycle needing repair, which police believe was also stolen, was found abandoned at the lower end of John Street.

On Monday morning, Orion P. Lubow, manager of the S. B. Harris department store, 32 Witherspoon Street, called to report a weekend entry. Taken were 10 men's shirts, a dozen pairs of men's trousers, a dozen ties, $12 in cash and coins with a combined value of $80.50. Police later recovered almost $20 worth of the clothing in a parking lot in the rear of the Public Library.

The front door was thought to have been forced to gain entry, although police said there were no pry marks. Detective Robert McAvoy is continuing the investigation.

Earlier in the week, police reported the entry of the office of Brune Interiors, 245 Nassau Street.

Police said that the intruder slipped the lock of the front door to gain entry. Once inside, he resacked the desk of Donald Brune, taking $2. A piggy bank containing $100 and a briefcase estimated $40. John G. Kellogg, president of the firm, placed the theft between 6:15 last Wednesday evening and 8:45 the next morning.

Township police report the breaking of a Hartley Avenue home between 9 and 9:45 p.m. on Friday. Two bedrooms were searched but police report the only items missing are 15 credit cards.

The owner did not discover the theft until 8:38 that evening when a sidewalk edger taken from a tool shed on the property was hurled through a 3x6 foot sliding glass door of the home. The person who declined to reveal the name of the owner, said they believed the window breaking was the work of youths in the area.

News Of The THEATRES

FOLK-ROCK

Sebastian, Seals & Crofts, The Lovin' Spoonful's founder, John Sebastian, will be the headliner this Saturday at 8 at Alexander Hall. The show is on the billings of Seals & Crofts.

Sebastian has more than one hundred published songs on his record, including most of the Spoonful's hits. Recently, he's been working on film music, and his scores include "You're A Big Boy Now," "What's Up, Tiger Lily?" and "The Magic Christian." Hoffman's Broadway hit, "Jimmy Shine."

Seals and Crofts, both from Texas, have been playing together more than a decade. They began when they were in high school during the good old days of rock 'n' roll, and they've carried on, making rock seem like it's here to stay.

Listeners describe their music as a combination of Simon & Garfunkel, the Everly Brothers and the incredible String Bands.

BACK TO NAPA VALLEY
With "Happy Fella," last year, it was River City, Iowa, with a Texas man. This year, it's Napa Valley, California with that happy fella.

Both, of course, are P. J. & B. spring musicals. The Frank Loesser operetta "The Most Happy Fella" has been repeated this year in McCarter four times. Evening performances are scheduled for 8 Sunday, Thursday, and there's a special matinee matinée on both for Saturday. Tickets now at the boxoffices.

The Rose Brooks, Jr. is based on a Sunday Howard Da Silva prize winner, "They Knew What They Wanted" (1935) and tells about the prosperous, middle-aged Italian grape grower, Tony.

who orders a mail-order bride after he sees her in a restaurant.

Tony will be sung by Steve Kusorgh and Rosalinda, the bride, will be Carolyn Larson. (She was Marian the Librarian last year, in "The Music Man.")

Others in the cast are Greg Farrell, who has been in many recent productions, and "Music Man" in which he was Professor Harold Hill; Don Gustafson, Reid White and Robert Rich, who will sing "Abondon-za," Ashby Adams and Doug Langston.

TEENS ON PREVIEW
At McCarter and in Trenton, preview of the big state-wide 1970 teen production will be held at McCarter and at the State Museum in Trenton Tuesday through Thursday, May 12-14.

The idea is to discover and encourage creative young people and give them a chance to do in the show what they can do in the real world.

Original and interpretative drama will be featured at McCarter on Tuesday and Thursday. Dance, ensemble music and multi-media will be on the program for Wednesday. The program will offer three different programs of original films, small music groups and readings of original writing. These programs will start at 10 a.m. each day and there will be a repeat performance at 1 p.m.

Entries in visual arts and crafts will be on display at the Museum throughout the month of May.

All programs and exhibitions are free, and the sponsors hope that students, their parents and teachers, especially, will attend. Reservations should be made in advance at McCarter, 921-4700 or the State Museum, 292-6347.

Sponsors, besides the theatre and museum, are the New Jersey State Council on the Arts and the New Jersey State Department of Education.

3 Weeks Only: Nine Programs • Now thru May 19 presented by McCarter & The Garden Theatres

THURS.-FRI. APRIL 30-MAY 1:

LA FEMME INFIDELE

France, 1969, color

A tale of infidelity and murder told in the elegant style of director CLAUDE CHABROL ("Les Biches"). A melodrama in the best Hitchcock tradition with the N.Y. Times cited as one of 1969's "Ten Best Films," with Stephen Andrus and Maurice Ronet.

SAT.-SUN.-MON. MAY 2-3-4:

WILD IN THE STREETS

An American-made "black comedy" blistering and witty; its subject is the tyranny of youth. Christopher Jones is a pop rock idol who takes over the country (with the aid of a little LSD) and becomes the first head-in Congress. With Shelly Winters and Hal Holbrook. Funny and disturbing, for those held under and over twenty.

TUES. & WED. MAY 5-6

THE RED & THE WHITE

(Hungary, 1967)

Director MIKLÓS JÁNCSSO has been hailed as the heir to Eisenstein as a master of the epic. A magnificent tableau of warfare set shortly after the Russian Revolution, which was corrupted by power and violence, and ruled by cruelty, repression and betrayal. Never less than visually enthralling.

Regular performance schedule: Eves. at 7 & 9. Mats. Wed., Sat., Sun. at 2:00. Regular admission prices. For information call 924-0263. Pick up brochure with complete programs (now May 19) at Gorden, Playhouse or McCarter Theatre lobbies.

Intime Drama a Rarity in Its Excellence

At the risk of repetition let me make this clearly known: There is Intime, the most excellent, the most exciting, the most about "The Persecution and Assassination of Jean-Paul Marat as Performed by the Inmates of the Asylum of Charenton Under the Direction of the Maniatis de Sade," a play by Peter Weiss currently on the stage of Murray Theater, will shake you to your bones if you see it.

This is why you must see it. It is an unforgettable, wounding and scarring; it is total. It is a play of actions, not contemplations, and because we know so little of actions, we must certainly think for while we suspect ourselves, expose ourselves, make ourselves vulnerable — and then re-engage with whomever we may be afraid to. We are drawn to it for more, more, more, for this evening, complete, relentless, dynamic, powerful, dreadful.

The gray world one enters is a prison for the insane: arches, walls, dim lights; it is a prison indeed; nothing more than its name allows; desolate, the most desolate of all. The oppressed inmates are grotesques: paranoid, megalomaniacs, manic depressives, maniacs, monsters.

Under the direction of the Marquis de Sade, the excesses, the orgies, the eroticistic, the degradation, and torture, the crosses and scarecrows, the dancing puppets, maimed dolls, marionettes awry: extensions of Sade's wild genius. These are brutal, gross, disgusting figures, figures to be seen, not loved, but pitied as we should pity ourselves for our own insanities.

Their moaning and singing, their piteous screams are the most agonizing sounds as they dance a choreography we have never seen before. Their intensity extends the love of pain to us, and it is closer truly ours, a pain somehow just, because we are human.

Coldness Is a Triumph. This is truly a mad-show, and Sade the lord of misrule. The entire concept of this production is that of a prison. More than 20 madmen are on stage and they are insolent and challenging; often they cannot be heard. They yell and groan, sing and curse, as they insinuate themselves into an entire world, a locality of insanity, action excluding us, we think, until we are trapped inside, inmates ourselves, and suddenly unsafe.

Illusions of thought or tradition or relationship are not replaced as we watch; they are shattered. It is the illusion that is shattered in what happens; and what we can manage to say about the slow explosions onstage is pointless and senseless, out of words and out of action. Theories in this context of art terms mean nothing because they do not do anything.

Whatever illusions of rationality, of order, of meaning there are not to be spoken about. The revolution we witness is a profoundly uncomfortable and oddly welcome experience, and it inexorably demands our attention.

"Perfect Demons." Yes, attend this play — I mean what I mean; attend, get it if the words of the players are hard. Richard B. Williams has created a brainlike cell populated with figures from Breughel or Bosch, perfect demons in the imagination of the original source.

You may remember a few players; each is stunning, the heeling herald, Sade, and Charlotte Corday, seem heartbreakingly perfect. "Intime" is a wholly achieved, organic action in itself. Constantly varying subtle in modulation and tone, yet constantly exciting, the figures on stage are obviously exhausting, bruising, and wracking to the players.

So it is also for us. This play cannot be measured in dimensions and it cannot be left behind. Its sensations are awful and striking in the most literal sense of those words.

For the witness it is two hours of intense, total, disharmony, and madness, and the witness must deal within himself with all witnessed pain. In even a lifetime of care for art or drama, you will find this only rarely, and it is thrilling when you do.

LAS VEGAS SETTING: Elizabeth Taylor and Warren Beatty are at the Prince Theatre in a story built around the dice tables.

PLAYHOUSE

Zarbiske Point is not plain. The theme seems to be that in the eyes of Michelangelo Antonioni, affluent America is spiritually sick.

He expresses this in a number of ways through his analysis of political, brutal, student, lecherous minded boys obsessed with sex and wealth and so on, with the ending even more graphic.

Plot has never been one of the strong points of the Italian director, and this film is no exception. What there is can be put briefly: a campus militant shoots a gunman in a school, he steals from an airport, and heads for the Mojave Desert, where he meets a girl secretary. They make love on the desert at Zarbiske Point, after which he captures the plane to Los Angeles and is not by a policeman.

The film is beautifully photographed by Alfio Contini. Zarbiske Point is a fascinating landscape of sterile river beds in white and gray. The lead are played by Elizabeth Taylor and Rock Hudson and provocative Darren Harbin. Their performances were obviously rigidly controlled by the director, and they served well him well.

PRINCE

The Only Game in Town (now playing) is the tension and atmosphere of the gamblers who are beautifully portrayed in this film version of Frank Gilroy's amusing stage play. It's about two average people, played by Warren Beatty and Elizabeth Taylor, who try to rise above the commonplace. George Stevens has directed the film with loving care. Beatty

IT'S NEW To Us

PLASTICS MOVE OUTDOORS
As Garden Furniture. The chemists are now providing us with a whole new line of plastic furniture. You can see it at Bernard Cooke Associates, 309 State Roadade.

It's the lifelike collection from California — cool white, light yellow and very white,
in a d" of polyvinyl-chloride.
There are several types of chairs, tables, and an adjustable chaise. And once you sink into the marvelously soft cushions, you'll never get the garden weeded.

"Turn the hose on it," Barnev Cooke says, "and it won't rust or warp." It's built to order on heavy soil. The upholstery can be washed clean or sponged with a mild soap. It's true all-weather furniture!

We saw with a mixture of garden and patio furniture at the Cooke Associates: wrought iron in soft green, traditional black, or white or yellow. Attractive, smoked glass tops the list.
The glass is tempered, which means that it is hard to break.
Some have cushions in decorator prints. We liked a five-piece set that sells for $117. The wrought iron is by Arlington House.

The range of Cooke Associates' projects is always interesting as the firm incorporates designer and decorator talents as well as drapery, upholstery and cabinetry services.

Two households now have "fireplace walls" through the Cooke efforts, adding a fireplace to a built-in unit for books, bills, and so on. The firm is doing the new offices of Applied Data Research and Orlans for interior design of a bank are in the works.

They are doing a lawyer's office, and for close to a year now have been involved with a new house that is just going up, with the architect's drawings.
The firm also has a continuing assignment for the Holland Houses on Garden State Parkway.

You could drop in there with a minor problem—the need for upholstery for one chair. You can browse through the fabric books—and there are nearly 100 —drapery or slip-cover patterns. A decorator will lend a hand.

If you don't need a design service, that is, if you just want to buy a piece of furniture, a rug, or fill in the decorative void,
you all the professional guidance
he can, and there's no fee charged.
If you want help in a floor plan or a room arrangement, there's a moderate hourly fee.

"Sometimes we're ennobled by the architect," Mr. Cooke says. "Other times the client and architect realize that we aren't going to do anything in his house until we have cleared it with him. Often they just turn the job over to us because we are busy and reliable. Our designers have a knowledge of architecture—for instance, they know why some walls can't be taken down."

Most people could design their house interior themselves, he believes, "but they don't have the courage. So we talk with them first, and when they really want to do something enough sampling to allow them to develop their own convictions.

"We do a survey with them, talk to all the family, and then we assemble ideas and point out to them the areas available. The only thing we do is keep them within the good taste of the design. We really work to get the client happily satisfied. You know, there are decorators who push in and say, 'Here's what you have to do.' Well, it isn't that easy."

WILD IN THE STREETS: Hal Holbrook swings an election to the Senate on a youth image campaign, but it is the folksinger, played by Christopher Jones, who moves towards the United States presidency in the anti-establishment film at the Garden this Saturday through Monday.

ly given a charismatic performance as the young playboy hooked on gambling that keeps the film spinning along and makes the laughs out of Gilroy's clever dialogue.

Elizabeth Taylor is the chubby, buxom chorine who hates Las Vegas and adores Humphrey Bogart movies. She meets Beatty in a bar where he ticks off the names of the women who cash handouts in a brand-new suit after playing the piano. Their casual domestic relationship that ensues — she vulnerable and defensive, he wisecracking and wary — is basically a battle for mutual trust.

GARDEN

La Femme Infidele (now playing thru Fri.) Stephane Audran plays the role of the housewife who enjoys a discreet affair with the wife of her husband (Michel Beaujard) who covers her lover (Maurice Rocard) and kills him in actually funny murder. The director is Eric Rohmer, whose "Les Biches" also appeared here. His style is elegant, ironic and strong in contrasts.

Wild in the Streets (Saturday thru Mon.) focuses on a teenage pop-rock idol, played by Christopher Jones, who becomes the father of a small child to get into Congress. Hal Holbrook is the young liberal Senator who tries to bridge the generation gap, and Shelly Winters is the rock star's mother who recognizes him only as she paralyzes the country. It's a funny and shrewd commentary on the youth culture.

The Red and The White (Next Tues. & Weds. at 8 p.m.) follows clashes between Bolsheviks and White Russian soldiers in a rural section of the Volga following the 1917 revolution. It is a magnificent tableau of war, politics and the love of humanity to his fellow man. An engrossing film, it is directed by the Hungarian Miklos Jancsó.

Curiously enough, the most popular of the packaged beans is the most expensive — Jamaican "Blue Mountain" beans which sell for $2.25 for 12 ounces. The most expensive beans in price from $1.35, include Puerto Rican Coffee, Columbia Excelso, Java Arapica, Brazil Santos, Mexican Mocha-Java, and Costa Rica.

Gourmet will grind the coffee for you, or sell you a grinder if you'd rather fresh-grind just before your meal. So if you haven't had a good cup of coffee in ages, here's your pioneering chance. The Gourmet coffee beans, 12 oz. of beans, by the way, are $1.35 for a full pound.

While you're there, you'll find a number of new things — some amusing, some very necessary and some really unique. For the customers who have kept asking "Haven't you anything bigger?" when staff members would point out steamers for soups or clams, Gourmet now has a two-and-a-half foot high steamer that will hold sixty quarts.

For party-givers a huge jar in brown ceramic with a spigot for dispensing liquid refreshments at beach or pool, the Vera-designed beach towels — so gay and a-musing as well as beautiful $8.95. Turned around you can see ten different types of towels, so you know what each is for, you're really a specialist. The Gourmet also has the Scandinavian kimono-like iridescent, the intricate, intricate designs, inside of the lid and bottom. You make a thin, sweet pancake with it that is something like a cookie.

To amuse yourself or the bride-to-be, Gourmet has framed prints featuring scallop spaghetti and skish-kabob, with hand-lettered recipes underneath. And in clear glass, a cake plate and cover or a high-stemmed wine glass.

For the bar, beautiful rosewood-handled gadgets such as a knife for lemon peel. There's also a small weighted handle on

Acting Principal Florence Burke and everyone had come to negotiate with the Church Council of the Church, across Houghton Road, to see whether church-owned vacant land could be converted to a People's Park.

A new parking lot for the high school and freshmen, some wearing flowers in their hair, began to plant a small tree in the middle of the site to protest construction. From on the hill, the young students shouted and began to fill in what the bulldozers had dug out, and before long several dozen students were replacing sod.

On Wednesday, sophomores and freshmen, some wearing flowers in their hair, began to plant a small tree in the middle of the site to protest construction. From on the hill, the young students shouted and began to fill in what the bulldozers had dug out, and before long several dozen students were replacing sod.

But most FHS students want a parking lot. It has been a point on Student Administration Day (election platforms for many years), and before long some of the pro-bol students pulled up the grassy plain.

A few sheets of mud and a few water-filled balloons were sailed through the Earth Day air. Then a firecracker exploded and Miss Burke called a halt to the goings-on.

Twelve students, representing pros and cons on the parking lot, met with Miss Burke in her office and it was decided to explore the possibilities of a new sward across Houghton.

One student said, "Negotiations will be a struggle, but we're setting differences." Miss Burke said, "Discussion was fruitful."

RIDING THE CAROUSEL CAT TO THE STUART GARDEN PARTY. On the way to the Stuart Garden Party held for the benefit of the Stuart Country Day School, Emily and Charlie Reeves and Carol and Liz O'Donoghue, the children's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David K. Reeves and Mr. and Mrs. John O'Donoghue are committee members for the affair. The party is on the 23rd. The carousel cat is owned by Mrs. Robert B. Meyer, who will be displayed as part of the Carousel of Amusements.

COLLECTIONS ON VIEW
At Stuart Gardo Pariv. An amusing display of artifacts, ancient and modern, from collections in the area, from ancient to the present day, will be at the Garden Party on Saturday, May 23 at the Stuart Country Day School. The benefit party and exhibition will be given to area Sacred Heart students. Hours, 5 to 7 on the school grounds.

For this third annual affair, a festive atmosphere will be set by Japanese kites, strolling Gypsy minstrels, champagne, hors d'oeuvres and a bevy of young ladies who will distribute urchin balloons.

The exhibit is to feature 19th century toys and banks from the collection of Mr. and Mrs. Bertrand Baumhauer, and the collection of pre-Columbian whistles belonging to Gillett Griffin.

Also displayed will be model railroad exhibits of the Pacific Southwest, scenes of Rocky Mountain, the sailors' folk art collection of Sam McDowell, a complete collection from Mrs. George C. Young, the toy soldier collection of Mrs. Lee O'Connor, and the Little Orphan Annie memorabilia belonging to Franklin A. Steele.

Governor and Mrs. William T. Cahill, Princeton University President and Mrs. Robert F. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McNeil, and Mrs. J. Lionberger Davis have been named honorary chairmen of the event. Mr. and Mrs. Franklin A. Steele, and Mr. and Mrs. James Hughes Jr., are co-chairmen of the committee. It includes the area Sacred Heart students, as well as mothers and fathers of Stuart students. This year's chairmen, assisted by their husbands, are: Mrs. John P. Murray, design: Mrs. Richard G. Flournour and Mrs. Holt A. Murray, staging: Mrs. John T. Henderson Jr., publicity: Mrs. Dudley A. Eppel and Mrs. Charles F. Fischer, refreshments.

Also: Mrs. John J. Loughlin, champagne; Mrs. Charles H. Place and Mrs. David J. Scott, balloons; Mrs. John Bell and Mr. and Mrs. John Bell, refreshments; Mrs. John E. Kuser and Mrs. William M. Lanning, invitations; Mrs. William L. J. Royal and Mrs. Harry J. Newman, refreshments; Miss Lee Flournour and Miss Ellen Murray, junior committee.

WATCH IS STOLEN

From Kalmas Store. A $35 woman's wristwatch was stolen from the window of The Watch Shop, 64 Chambers Street.

Owner Henry Kalmas told police that the clerk had to go to the rear of the store shortly after two men wearing light hats and light topcoats entered. When he returned that watch was missing.

CHARGES UPHELD

In Hickel Incident, University Provost William G. Bowen has upheld the action of the Princeton students for their part in disrupting the March 5 speech by Secretary of the Interior Walter J. Hickel, after reviewing the legal aspects of their case and dismissed.

With two exceptions, one relating to the conditions of disciplinary probation and one affecting the strength of the board, the students' case was upheld.

Mr. Bowen upholds the imposition by the Judicial Committee,

Suspensions of one year, originally handed out to Matthew Meyers, Robert Cohen and James Tarlau, were reduced to indefinite suspension and disciplinary probation for the remainder of their stay at Princeton. The suspension is defined as the length of time required for the student to communicate to his parents the reasons for his suspension and have them approved. Dean of Students indicating knowledge of the case and requesting reinstatement.

Mr. Bowen also questioned the "automatic withdrawal" feature of the disciplinary system, the penalties on the condition that the students on probation would be required to withdraw from the University immediately if found guilty of a repeated violation. He said the University policy is felt that making withdrawal automatic allowed no opportunity for consideration of the case of an individual in the light of personal circumstances, at the time.

STOP BUILDING

Two Urgent Halt, James Sayen, chairman of the Township Open Space Committee, and Robert Robinson, Township assessor, propose a halt to all building in Princeton until sever problems are solved — perhaps for two years until the Stony Brook regional sewer has been completed.

Mr. Sayen admits he won't get much support locally. But Mr. Hobart, the developer, himself could cause such a halt and cry from private developers and Princeton University that officials would move faster to solve sever problems.

THREE FINED $12

For Red Light Violations. Three Princeton residents were each fined $12 Monday in Boro court by Judge Theodore T. Tams Jr., for red light violations.

They are Gertrude W. Diederich, 59, 213 Snowden Lane; Jacqueline A. Mezey, 36, 73 Library Place; and Giovanni Riehl, 27, Fahey Physics Building, Princeton University, all pleaded guilty.

Robert B. Stewart, 213 State Road, and Albert J. Cevera, 44 Hillside Avenue, were each fined $10 for failing to display a name on a commercial vehicle.

VERANDA ROOF DENIED

For Bellows By Zoners. A veranda-type roof that would have extended over the front of the Bellows, 210 Nassau Street, three and one-half feet, was denied last week by the Borough Zoning Board.

The board based its denial solely on its feeling that the proposed remodeling was "a substantial intrusion beyond the predominant storefront line along Nassau Street." The board decided not to become involved in the problem of right-of-way claimed by the state for Nassau Street.

Attorney A. C. Reeves Hicks had told the board earlier that the front veranda concept was as old as Dutch City from which the Bellows came. The remodeling of the facade of Bellows, as envisioned by the consultant who sketched the plans, consisted of columns of brick facing, two large bowed windows, a side of an enlarged entrance and a permanent veranda awning. He wrote in a letter, which Mr. Hicks read to the board, that he felt the result would be to the keeping with the atmosphere of the neighborhood which he found to be one of "quiet, gracious elegance."

The proposed veranda roof would extend six feet from the front of the store and 13 feet from the curb. Eleven feet high, it would be supported by nine wooden columns, 5½ inches wide. Mr. Hicks told the board the veranda awning would not cut off the vision of pedestrians and would be an attractive addition. There were no objections

Tax Office Has Moved

Quarterly municipal taxes are due this Friday, May 1.

Township taxpayers who pay bills in person, should go to the Township's new tax office in the big ORC (Opinion Research Corporation) building on Perimeter Road just east of North Harrison in the Shopping Center.

The sign for the new location is visible in the ORC building in the new section, and there are signs pointing the way.

The application of Eva Shup of Shup's Cleaning Service, a small house she owns at 16 Nassau Street, into a joint occupancy use was denied. Dr. Short, a psychiatrist at the New Jersey Neurological Institute, Princeton, had wanted to use the first floor as an office to treat patients at night and the second floor as an apartment.

The board ruled that she failed to satisfy the requirements concerning such a conversion and that she had not demonstrated any grounds for relief. Primary Dr. Shup was not able to provide a specific parking place or require three parking feet of open space required for each habitable room.

The application of Winifred E. Longstreet and her mother, Elizabeth P. Gray, to convert a large house they own at 62 Nassau Street into a two-family dwelling was granted.

James Mackenzie was granted an extension of six months of a lot width variance he had received in May, 1969, from the Board of Adjustment, to plan a house on a lot at 36 Nassau Street in the front.

Mr. Mackenzie, formerly in business for himself in the real estate field, told the board that "adverse economic conditions" had prevented him from moving ahead as fast as he had originally outlined and that he needed more time. Sewer, gas and water lines, he said, have already been installed.

Police Opening Listed

Applicants for patrolman are being sought by the West Windsor Township police department. Applications may be obtained between 9 and 5 at police headquarters on South Mill Road in Dutch Neck. Applications for the position, which carries a $8 to $10,000 salary, must be between 21 and 35.

QUADRANGLE HAS PLAN

For Student Housing, A tentative proposal to develop housing on its own property for as many as 126 students is being explored by the undergraduate members of Princeton University's Quadrangle Club, one of the upper-class eating facilities on Prospect Street.

Developed by Herbert A. Davis, class of 1919 at the University of Michigan, the proposed graduate house, the plan calls for a residential quadrangle of 21 six-man units, each with three bedrooms, a study, recreation room and kitchenette. The expansion would also include additional dining facilities to accommodate the increased membership, a heated swimming pool and paved parking for cars.

Mr. Davis, who specializes in feasibility studies for the Baltimore realty firm of Chase, Fitzgerald, Davis and Roland, estimated the cost of the project would be $300,000. If the work could begin immediately, Quadrangle president, senior Paul A. McGinley said that the club's current membership appears to be in favor of the plan, and will probably fully support the project before the end of the school year. The entire graduate board would also vote on the proposal.

"We don't really regard this project as an off-campus housing project," Mr. Davis said. "Actually, the housing would be closer to classrooms than most dormitories owned by the University, and we think it would be a positive addition to the university community, although we want and plan to remain independent."

The feasibility study done by Davis estimates total revenue from student occupancy of the units at $65,000, with another $8,000 from summer rentals to non-members of the university community. About $10,000 more annually would come from the cost of general cleaning, heat and rental of parking spaces. He said a 25-year mortgage at eight per cent interest would call for payments of about $43,000 annually.

Quadrangle's clubhouse was built in 1917. Original plans, drawn up before World War I, called for a four-building complex, but financial pressures after the war made it impossible to complete the Quadrangle.

FASHION SHOW SET

Planned As Benefit Tuesday Evening - "The Wedding Dress" rehearsal will be presented at the benefit fashion show of the Montgomery Township Sertoma Club, "The Summer Scene," on May 10. The show will also feature a variety of fashions for casual wear, cocktails, dinner, playtime and sports, including men's jackets, all from Reynolds of Somerville.

Assuming that the bride will be a member of the community acting as the bride, the mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. A bower of greenery and blossoms is the setting on the stage of the new high school auditorium.

"The Summer Scene" is a fund-raising benefit for the new scholarship fund of the Parents and Teachers Association. According to Mrs. Robert Schwenker, co-chairman of the show with Mrs. Frank Schneck, the fund is intended to assist qualified students who wish to continue advanced studies after graduation, either at college or in a technical school. Scholarships will be awarded on the basis of need.

Admission is $2 for adults and $1 for students. Early reservations are suggested by ticket chairman Mrs. John Connelly. Tickets may be reserved or purchased through Mrs. John

BANJOS AND BEER HERE

On the Five of the Fete, The Princeton Hospital Fete Committee has arranged to have "Your Father's Mustache" performers, and an entertainment on Friday, June 12, the eve of the Fete, from 6:30 to midnight in the Rock Marathon Tent on the Fete grounds.

The internationally famous
"Your Father's Mustache" four
"banjo band" to entertain. Singing waiters from area colleges, also in costume, will serve pitches of beer or drinks from the cash bar. No minors can be admitted.

The charge is $15 per couple and all reservations must be made by June 5 so that the caterer, Peter Viegling, can make arrangements for food.

STRUMMIN' UP A STORM: "Your Father's Mustache" is bringing a five-piece "banjo band" to entertain on the eve of the Princeton Hospital Fete. Singing waiters from Princeton area colleges, also in costume, will serve pitchers of beer or drinks from the cash bar.

Mrs. Stewart Wilson and Mr.

ARTS COUNCIL TO MEET

The Longmeadow Arts Council
The third annual meeting of the Arts Council of Princeton is scheduled for Tuesday evening at 8 in the Public Library, New members will be elected to the Board of Trustees at that time.

The session will also provide an opportunity for all those concerned with the arts in Princeton to meet and work in which the Arts Council may be more effective in assisting the various arts groups in town.

Members are invited, along with all individuals interested in the visual and performing arts.

LIONS PUSH BROOMS

For Worthy Causes. The annual spring cleanup will be held on the West Witherspoon Street side of the West Township Lions Club on Saturday. The Lions will call on residents of the Township during the day, offering a supply of spare housecleaning items and materials.

Proceeds of the sale are used to support the various youth, social and civic services provided to the community by the club.

Information is available from the broom sale chairman, Bob

Clowall, at 799-1536.

LOOK AT 1976

How to Plan Bicentennial. How should New Jersey observe the 200th anniversary of the American Revolution during the 1970's?

What are organizations and institutions throughout the state now doing in preparation for the Bicentennial? How can we work to promote appreciation of the men and events of the Revolutionary era and the ideas and ideals embodied in the Declaration of Independence?

The New Jersey Historical Commission will take up these questions at a public hearing
Wednesday in the Senate Chamber in Trenton. The hearing, which will open at 2:30 a.m., will be called "to ascertain public opinion on New Jersey's role in the Bicentennial 'Year of '76," according to the Commission's chairman, Professor Richard P. McCormick of Rutgers. (See "Mailbox," page 22.)

Scheduled to testify are some 30 representatives of historical, educational, cultural and civic groups. Their testimony will be studied by the Commission in preparing a state plan for the Bicentennial.

The Only Race We Cannot Afford To Lose Is The Human Race...

The Arms Race Must Be Stopped!!

The Pentagon is pressuring Congress for funds for MIRV and expansion of the ABM system.
Authorization for these funds MUST BE DENIED because:

- Long-range costs for ABM and MIRV combined have been conservatively estimated at about $60 billion — money that is needed for urgent domestic problems. The effectiveness as well as the necessity for these weapons has been questioned by leading scientists and legislators.
- Development of these missile systems will jeopardize the current talks with the Soviet Union on strategic arms limitation (SALT).
- As our government plunges deeper into the "war business", it becomes more difficult to ignore pressures from those groups who have a vested interest in the manufacture and maintenance of these weapon systems. Thus it is essential that there be an immediate shift in emphasis and resources so that these funds can instead be made available for America's URGENT HUMAN NEEDS.

MAKE YOUR VIEWS KNOWN — NOW — before the Senate votes on this mindless Pentagon request (vote expected in mid-May). Write to Sen. Clifford P. Case and Sen. Harrison Williams, Jr., United States Senate, Washington, D.C. 20510.

URGE THEM TO VOTE AGAINST AUTHORIZATION.

be conveyed to the American Revolution Bicentennial Commission, the federal agency which is planning the national observance in cooperation with the states. Bicentennial committees in other states will also be informed. At least three neighboring states — Pennsylvania, New York and Connecticut — are planning to send observers to the hearing. Members of the public interested in the Bicentennial are invited to attend.

"RESEARCH IS FUN!"

Says Prof. Alyea. Students fifth grade and up, are especially invited to a demonstration-lecture, "Research Is Fun" to be given Monday, May 11, at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of Witherspoon School, by Professor Hubert N. Alyea of the Princeton University chemistry department.

The program will benefit the Princeton High School PTA Scholarship Fund.

Dr. Alyea has given his demonstration-lectures in more than 50 countries. He has been seen most recently in Princeton giving his talk called "Lucky Accidents, Great Discoveries and the Prepared Mind."

APPEAL GROUP FORMED

For Annual Park Campaign, Mrs. Peter B. Putnam, 48 Roper Road, has been selected again this year to head a Princeton area appeal of the National Recreation and Park Association. The direct mail campaign lends support to the NRPA's national effort to increase and expand park, recreation and conservation services.

In addition, the NRPA encourages summer youth programs and helps in preserving natural and human resources by aiding public and private agencies to develop programs and train personnel.

Also named to the area committee this year are Mrs. James Carey, Mrs. Michael Erdman,

NEW ADMISSION OFFICERS AT PRINCETON UNIVERSITY: With applications from men and women for the Class of 1974 up sharply (see box) the admission staff was increased to 12. Pictured are the new officers: Mr. John Holt, Mr. Donald Barron, Mr. Roberto Barrigan, Jr., who is assistant director of the Bureau of Student Life; working closely with the admission office; Mrs. Marion G. Steel, administrative intern with the admission office; Mrs. Donna Palmer; Mrs. Ruth Scott; Miss Carolyn Jagger; and Miss Dawn Jackson. Missing is Mrs. Carol Thompson, who joined the admission office last year to work with applications from the first group of women and is now a member of the permanent admission staff.

Applications Here Soon

The New York Times reported this week that Princeton University, in contrast to its sister institutions of state or Ivy League colleges, experienced an increase of 49% during the past 12 months.

The second highest increase (26%) was credited to Cornell University, which, however, whereas decreases of 1% to 2% were reported at Dartmouth, Harvard and Cornell.

Princeton's upward surge was in sharp contrast to the previous 12 months, when an increase of 25% was recorded. During the admissions year just ended (admissions for the class of 1974 were mailed earlier this month), 8,382 applications were received, 1,570 were admitted and 985 acceptances are anticipated.

Mrs. Leighton Hunter, Mrs. Leslie Laughlin, Mrs. Helene MacCoy and Donald Barr, executive director of the Princeton Recreation Department.

TO START NEW SCHOOL

Along Experimental Lines, Formation of a new experimental day school in the Princeton area will be discussed next Wednesday, May 6 at 8 p.m. at an open meeting in the Friends Meeting House, Quaker Bridge Road.

Chairman will be Sam Bellano, teacher at Selen Hall. All parents and children who would like to meet and discuss the new school are invited to attend.

A co-operative of teachers and children, the school would be rooted in the principles of such present drive, all adoption fees writers and educators as John have been waived by the agency Holt, George Dennison, Clark, etc.

Couples who would like to consider adopting Negro infants or children should call the Volunteer Bureau at 323-7194 or write to the Bureau at 602 Greenwood Avenue, Princeton.

The drive is also directed toward finding homes for children with medical problems or physical handicaps, and for older children or families of brothers and sisters.

CENSUS WORK PROCEDES

Some House Calls Necessary. District Manager Charles F. Mann, Jr., reports good progress in the first two phases of the third census of Population and Housing. Census takers are visiting homes from which no questionnaires were mailed back, as well as those in which questionnaires were returned incompletely filled out.

The District Manager asks householders to welcome these census takers when they call and to give them full cooperation in filling out the required census information.

Most of the census takers are women. Each wears a red, white and blue identification badge which is her official credential. It bears her signature and certifies that she is authorized to perform the duties of a Census Enumerator, and has sworn to keep confidential all census information given her.

Thanks from Red Cross.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

Following is the text of a letter sent to Bernice Hirsch, Executive Director of the New Jersey Historical Commission:

I am addressing this letter to you on behalf of the Open Space Commissioners of Princeton Township in order to express our concern over the plan to celebrate the 200th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence which has been offered under the name of "Patriots' Day".

As has already been explained to your Commission, the proponents of this plan believe that the celebration should commemorate our 200th anniversary by recreating a scene of mass celebration of a cooperative spirit within the original 13th colonies. This would take the form of a high-speed rail transportation system between the colonies of those colonies running from Boston to Atlanta. Along with the mass transportation link the project would include improvements in the railroads, the participating cities and the areas between them, in such ways as beautifying the rights of way for the railroad and adjoining highways, reducing air pollution, and improving recreational facilities.

It is because of our concern for the Open Space Commissioners of Princeton Township have studied the Patriots' Day proposal and have authorized me to express their unanimous support for this proposal.

We urge that your Commission lend its full support to the resolution now being advanced by Assemblyman William E. Schuster to appoint a legislative committee to reevaluate New Jersey's plans for the Bicentennial in the light of the new Patriots' Day.

THOMAS P. COOK

(Editor's Note: A public hearing will be held on Tuesday, May 5 at 10 a.m. in the State Assembly chamber, State House, Trenton, before the New Jersey Historical Commission. Some Princeton residents are working on formation of a New Jersey Committee for Patriots' Day and are urging attendance at the hearing. Among the organizing members are Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Hutter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Agle, Mr. and Mrs. J. Richardson Dill, Mr. Julian J. Boyd, Hans K. Sander, Mr. P. Cleary, William Shorth, Thomas Sutherland, James C. Sayen, Mrs. John D. Davies, Gerald Breece and Newell Brown.)

To the Editor of Town Topics:

New volunteers are still signing up with the Red Cross. Therefore, the results of the Princeton Blood Donor Drive have not been tallied. The inspiring response of the community indicates that the drive was a success. The drive helped give the Mayo's Proclamation real meaning and true community spirit.

Through the tremendous contribution of time, space and individual effort, the Red Cross has brought to the people of Princeton the history of Princeton's unique blood program; the benefits which accrue to all patients and the Princeton Hospital because of it, and the critical need for more donors as the blood needs of the community rise so rapidly.

The Princeton Blood Donor

Service is eager to thank the local news media and those business establishments that helped so much to publicize our drive.

We also wish to thank the group of ladies who served a sumptuous meal to the students after they had covered Princeton on foot Wednesday afternoon.

Most importantly, we wish to express our deepest gratitude to the students who participated in the Seminar and to the Boy Scouts of Troop 88 who joined them. Thank you for the magnificent job you have done in organizing and participating in this unaltered leg-work. Thank you for the inspiration you have provided to all of our adult community to sign-up and, as you have done, "Share the Joy of Living".

Reflections on Earth Day.

To the Editor of Town Topics:

While I can disagree with some of the arguments behind "Earth Day" all in all, I am very pleased with the efforts of some of the younger members of the Community in promoting the environment, the clean environment, in voluntary garbage collection and by the students of Princeton High School in covering over a proposed parking lot. I only wish that the latter were not so noisy in their protest.

The principal of Princeton High School, the Board of Education, and the town government should profit by the example of the minded students. First, they should prohibit any student of Princeton High School from driving to school, and have the police ticket and car parked on the street. In the present economy, they should suspend the bus service to the High School, and make all students walk to school, or ride bicycles, even from Montgomery and West Windsor Townships.

After all, the administration of the High School is alleged, was advised by a few of the students to walk when the busable. We should all exercise more, and besides, it would help our environment. The Borough Engineers should be consulted to fill in the road designed for buses connecting Houghton Street and Franklin Avenue, and most of the present traffic, and, also, in this place build malls and landscaped flower gardens. Better yet, the students should do this. It is hoped that these moves will ultimately lower our taxes and make for a healthier, contented, and more dedicated group of students.

I hope that all these actions by the students of Princeton will be done every day voluntarily, even if it should mean the hauling of garbage to the dump by bicycle by the students. After all, this is not impractical. Millions of people in the world live bicycle actively. Let us the truck here.

I am not being facetious or light in my proposals. I am serious. If the students of Princeton High School can interfere in a concrete project in the name of Ecology, why should not the sacrifice be made to accept the sacrifices in the name of Ecology.

REPRESENTING PRINCETON at this year's Girls' State sessions will be Debbie Dwork (left) of Princeton High School. With her are Mrs. John Krueger, Girls' State chairman for American Legion Post 76 Auxiliary; Pam Douglas, alternate delegate, and Lois Annick, the 1969 delegate. Selections for the Post 76 delegate to Boys' State will be made in May. Commander Frank A. Tylus announced at Boys/Girls State Night last week.

They completely filled the largest Township dump-truck with litter and raked out fallen clippings described as "trash" on our roads.

This activity is, we hope, to be the beginning of a volunteer citizens program sponsored by the Open Space Commission, to clean up the remaining 20 miles of trash littering the streets.

When this cleanup job is completed, may we ask our fellow citizens to join in this service before "officializing" trash?

Again, many thanks to Scouts,

WALK THROUGH SPACE

Open, That Is. The annual "Walk in the Parks" sponsored by the Princeton Township Open Space Commission will be held Sunday, May 10, from 2 to 5 p.m. Rain date, Sunday, May 17.

All Township Open Space areas are open all year. The "Walk in the Parks" is designed to acquaint residents of the area with the facilities offered in these wild woodland areas.

Featured parks will be the Wildlife Refuge, Lower Millstone and Stony Brook, the Woodfield Recreational on The Great Road; Herrontown Woods, on Snowden Lane; Autumn Hill on Herron-town Road and Marquardt Park between Stockton and Mercer Streets.

At the entrance to each park will be members of the citizens group advising the Commission on that particular park. They will have information on the park, and a free map of all Open Space recreation areas.

"Guide to Open Space in Princeton," is available for information in the Open Space Library at the reference desk.
It contains photographs and descriptions of areas.
Free maps of the parks are also available at the library.

The Open Space Commission reminds park visitors that there is neither running water nor toilet facilities in any park.

TWO ARE APPOINTED
To Fill Watershed Vacancies.
At its Annual Meeting last Monday, the trustees of the Stony Brook-Millstone Watershed Association announced the appointments of Paul VanWegen and Peter A.
Gail as program director to fill vacancies created by the resignations during this past year of Paul VanWegen and Richard S.
Gilligan.

Mr. Walker will begin his new assignment on May 18. Mr. Gail will be joining the staff early this summer.

Mr. Walker's career has been as a geologist working for county, state, and federal agencies within New Jersey. Since 1966 he has been with the Soil Conservation Service, most recently as staff specialist with technical responsibilities in the overall geological phase of the Service's activities in New Jersey including conservation operations, watershed protection and flood prevention.

Mr. Walker received a B.A. degree in geology from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1959 and an M.A. in geology from the University of South Dakota in 1961. He resides with his wife and three children in 39 Rocky Brook Road, Cranbury, a member of the East Windsor Township Planning Board and Chairman of the East Windsor Township Board of Health.

Mr. Gail was graduated with a B.S. degree in Biological Science at California State Polytechnic College, Pomona, California in 1962 and received an M.S. in Biology from Claremont Graduate School in 1964. He expects to receive a Ph.D. in Botany from Rutgers
this summer.

Mr. Gad has been an instructor in Biology and Ecology at the Newark College of Arts and Sciences of Rutgers University since early 1969. From December 1967 to January 1969 he was Director of Conservation Education Center for the Boy Scouts of America.

He is married and has two children. He and his family reside in Piscataway, New Jersey.

WINNERS NAMED

In Poster Contest, A student membership program has been initiated at the Stony Brook Millstone Watershed Association, as a result of the response from young people to Earth Day and the just-completed "Environmental Ban-U" poster contest.

The Watershed trustees have decided to present student memberships to all who participated in the Earth Day activities last week, including the poster contest, which was sponsored jointly by the Princeton Art Association and the Princeton Ecology Action Group.

The results of the poster contest, with prizes in the form of books about ecology and environment, are as follows:

First Prize: Douglas Blair, a Princeton University junior in geology, for his landscape with "ink blots."

Second Prize: Cynthia DeLong, a tenth-grade student at PHS, for "Green Leaf on a Black Background."

Third Prize: Wendy Peterson, a sixth-grader at Stuart County Day School, for her poster of two ducks swimming on a polluted pond.

Three honorable mention awards were given by the judges. These went to: Abby Gandy, a tenth-grade student at Princeton Day School; for her sketch with the quote "Pollution Sinks," Fairplay Hutter, another tenth-grade student at Princeton Day School; for her poster of a sign reading "Your Highway Taxes Work," and Mrs. S. T. Kimbrough, Jr., a full-time student at Rider College, for her poster depicting a lake with the caption "Take a deep breath and hold it forever."

urban living with city children from Trenton.

The "Summer for Kids" program begins June 10, for children ages 7 to 12 would be welcome for a week. The new project is modeled on the New York Fresh Air Fund which has been doing the same type of work for 80 years.

The Jaycee chapters of Lights on, Princeton, East Windsor, Hamilton, Township and Lawrence Township have coordinated the project to benefit Trenton children who might otherwise be forgotten.

Each family can choose the sex and age of the child who will come to visit, and the Jaycees will take care of the child's transportation to and from the city. A picnic for the host family is also planned by the Jaycees.

Families interested in offering a vacation to a Trenton youngster should contact Jerry Thapa, at 639-2539.

NEW DIRECTOR NAMED
At University League Nursery, Mrs. Carolyn Hills has been named director of the University League Nursery School, to succeed Mrs. Marian Maxwell. Mrs. Maxwell has served for seven years as director and 14 years of teaching at the school.

Mrs. Hills, a native of Brooklyn, attended public schools and graduated from Fisk University majoring in psychology. Her teaching experience includes former positions in Ithaca, New York and Urbana, Illinois, as well as the Princeton "Y" Toddler School. She has taught at the League Nursery for the past four years.

The new director feels that the cooperative League of Women offers unique experience that is constructive for parents as well as children. By participating in the work of running the school, parents can share in their children's new learning experiences and individual development.

The school is open to children of all parents connected with Princeton University. A scholarship program is available to encourage a broader range of participants.

A resident of Lawrence Township, Mrs. Hills is married and has three children. She is on the board of directors of the Child Guidance Center of Mercer County and is a past president of the League of Women Voters of Lawrence Township.

Mrs. Maxwell plans to move to Austin, Texas, where her husband has accepted a new appointment as professor of geology at the University of Texas.

PHOTO DEADLINE NEARS

In Junior Contest, The Junior Photographic Competition being sponsored by the Princeton Historical Society and the Arts Council of Princeton will close Friday, May 13.

All entries may be left at Bainbridge House, 158 Nassau Street, on the morning of Saturday, May 13, or the afternoon of Wednesday, May 13. Judging will follow shortly after that date, and the winners will be notified.

FAIR IS PLANNED

At Princeton Day School, Funds for the construction of a new gymnasium are the object of the Princeton Day School Fair, which will be held, rain or shine, on the school ice rink from 10 to 4 on Saturday, May 13.

The fair is an all-school effort to which students, teachers and parents give considerable labor. Rides, games and food will be plenty, and prices children can afford. Plants and other gifts will be available with Mother's Day specifically in mind.

Special Class projects include the 8th grade "White Elephant Sale," the 9th grade babysitting service, the 10th grade grade car-wash, the 10th grade garden flowers, and the jail built by the 10th and 11th grades. Students and their parents will staff all the games.

Music from Marlboro Delights, As Always

Ten McCosh Hall is just about the finest auditorium for chamber music concerts and its acoustic splendors are all the more delightful when "Music from Marlboro" musicians perform there.

Last Wednesday night, the fifth program in the Marlboro University Department of Music's chamber series took place before one of the larger audiences of the season. The performers were the internationally renowned James and Ruth Laredo (violin and piano respectively), Robert Sylvester, violoncello, and Raphael Hillyer, viola. The program consisted of the "String Quartet" by Antonia Dvorak, the Sonda Concertante by Leon Kirchner and the Piano Quartet in G minor, Op. 25 by Johannes Brahms.

The Kirchner work, dating from 1962 when the composer was 33, displays a master craftsman whose composition abounds in a variety of moods and rhythmic interests, (especially in the dazzling piano) part which Ruth Laredo executed brilliantly. The second piece, the "String Quartet" by Antonia Dvorak, was the final one of this current season's major chamber music offerings. It was also the best, and was rewarded by a tumultuous ovation from an enthusiastic McCosh Hall audience.

lid self throughout the evening, but that was Ruth Laredo's pianism that made the perfect musical experience that it was.

For the Brahms' "Piano Quartet" Ruth Laredo presented the piece with great clarity. Sylvester in a reading of this grand work that must be regarded as the "last word" in fidelity to the spirit of the music.

The Brahms' concert was the final one of this current season's major chamber music offerings. It was also the best, and was rewarded by a tumultuous ovation from an enthusiastic McCosh Hall audience.

FOLK-HOOF CONCERT SET

To benefit Scholarship Fund. Princeton area residents are cordially invited to a folk-rock concert Friday evening, May 4, in the Auditorium of the Campus Center Auditorium. The performance at 8:30 is for the benefit of the Erdman Hall fund. Principal performers will be the Redwood Band, a local group of the university's speech department, and Donald M. Mackenzie, a senior in the bachelor of divinity program.

They will be assisted by senior Kent L. Smith on electric bass, junior Drew S. Netting on percussion, and muddlers A. Allen Brindisi, Paul R. Deppe, and Alfred C. Ladahl on guitars.

Mr. Jacks is a PhD candidate in speech and theatre arts at Columbia University. He has performed with drama and music as a communication channel on the stage, on radio broadcasts, and in his postulates. He received his Bachelor of Divinity degree from Princeton Seminary and a Master of Theological Seminary.

Donations to the scholarship fund will be $2 a person. Tickets may be obtained in advance from the public relations office.

CLUBS WILL SING

For Houseparty Concert. The Princeton University Glee Club will be assisted by the Freshman Glee Club in a "Houseparty Concert," Friday from 8 to 9 in Alexander Hall. The performance marks the end of the Glee Club's 96th season. Traditionally, the program includes highlights from the lighter side of the Glee Club's repertoire.

MAY 7 THE DAY
For Free Pap Test. A cancer detection and prevention campaign among women of the Princeton Hospital service area and Mercer County in particular can achieve a major victory over the disease when free Pap Tests are offered.

The medical supplies, doctors, nurses and clerical aides are already prepared and uterine cancer can be prevented if women will participate, stated Mrs. Robert J. Alpert, lay chairman for the program jointly sponsored by the Mercer County Unit of the American Cancer Society, the Mercer County Component Medical Society,
Dr. James E. Hastings of Princeton Hospital and Dr. Raymond McCormack of Trenton, are th-medical chairman.

The free, quick and painless Pap Test will be given May 7 at Princeton Hospital, from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.; Lawrence Township Health Department, 4 to 8 p.m.; Hightstown Community Center
on Rogers Ave. from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. No appointment is required.

The Pap Test takes its name from Dr. George N. Papanicolaou, the late Greek-born scientist who developed the technique for examining a tiny smear of cells taken from the uterus. The May 7 tests will be small-scale affairs, and along with other supplies are being provided by Cancer Society funds.

Individuals and women's organizations have been preparing and publicizing the Pap Test Day for several weeks.

Among the area chairmen and coordinators are: Hightstown, Mrs. Robert J. Alpert, president of Princeton Hospital; president of the area nurses' association; Mrs.
Andrea Aughebaugh of Hightstown Community Center;
Dr. Julius Richter of Princeton
Hospital, the medical chairman.

Lawrence Township, Mrs. Adrian F. Heffernan of Lawrenceville, a nurse at Princeton Hospital;
Mrs. James M. Ross, infirmary; Robert Lind, the Township health officer. Dr. J. R. Fioclo of Helene Fulfillment Hospital, medical chairman.

Princeton, Mrs. Charles Baer
Town Topics, Princeton, N.J.

Music In Princeton

ertoire, such as American folk songs, spirituals and glee.

This performance will also feature selections of Mozart and Dvorak, with the "Tchaikovsky" by Radall Thompson. The Dvorak songs will be sung as they were written, in the Czech language.

The premiere performance of "A Requiem in the Ivy League," is also a part of Friday's program.
The musical satire commemorates the sunset of certain traditions, the 1970s and the new dawn" of rock music. A medley of Princeton songs, arranged by conductor Walter Nolner, will also be heard.

The Freshman Glee Club, conducted by Dr. David Tregis, will perform several selections from its own repertoire for the concert. Mr. Tregis is director of vocal music at Princeton High School.

Tickets are $2 (students $1) and may be purchased at the door, or at the University Store.

AULOS TRIO TO PLAY

In Sunday Concert, The Art Museum of Princeton University will present a concert this Sunday by the Aulos Trio, a woodwind group made up of oboe, clarinet and bassoon. Open to the public, the concert in the Museum, will begin at 4:45 p.m.

Included on the program will be selections by Bach, David Johnson, Mendelssohn, Michael Aubrey, plus three madrigals for soprano and winds by Olga Goreli; with words by F. Olessi.
The concert is presented through the courtesy of Mrs. Thomas G.
Cochran.

Members of the trio are Martha Helms, oboe; George M.
Jones, clarinet; and Edward Helms, bassoon; with Jean Thomas, soprano, assisting.

WHO ARE THESE STRAIGHT-ARROWS, ANYWAY? They're all Consumer Bureau

Registered business people — recommended to Consumer Bureau by their own satisfied customers;

AND WHY DO WE THINK

THEY'RE SO STRAIGHT? Since 1967, when Consumer Bureau started advertising for consumer complaints, they've all handled — to the satisfaction of Consumer Bureau's various committees of unpaid consumer volunteers — whatever consumer complaints affecting them may have been received by the Bureau;

AND WHY CALL THEM ARROWS?

Well, by joining Consumer Bureau as dues-paying, non-voting Business Members, or by having voluntarily taken part in one or more Consumer Bureau paid advertising programs, they're giving Consumer Bureau the zing to aim straight at the heart of many consumer problems which cost money to deal with;

THEN WHAT ABOUT Consumer

Business Registered business people who have not yet become dues-paying Business Members of Consumer Bureau? They're all listed at no charge, as usual, on our complete unpublished Register of recommended business people and they've been given — also free of charge — Consumer Bureau Registration Numbers by which they can identify themselves on request as Consumer Bureau Registered business people. We hope they'll all be dues-paying Consumer Bureau Business Members soon—so we can list them in our ads and make it easier for consumers to know who they are!

AND WHY THIS STRAIGHT-ARROW SWEEPSTAKES? To dramatize to Princeton area consumers who their best friends are among the business people who serve the Princeton area!

PEOPLE In The News

Orren Jack Turner, 39 Hamilton Avenue, was the guest lecturer at a meeting of the Professional Photographers of Canada. Mr. Turner, a member of the Princeton chapter, presented a paper on "Photographing the Human Figure," followed by a demonstration.

Craig Donatson, 41, Leavenworth, has been named to the Honor's List at Fairleigh Dickinson University for achieving a semester average of more than 85%.

Miss Patricia A. Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joel B. Johnson, 85 Overbrook Drive, took part in a contemporary mime production by eight students recently at Colby Junior College, New London, New Hampshire.

The production was part of "Comedy Today," an evening of modern music, dance, and drama that was staged in the college's Samson Theatre.

This was the first major production of mime theatre by students in the dramatics and dance programs. The routines were performed by guest directors Karen and Bill Peeler.

Miss Johnson is a freshman, enrolled in the college's liberal arts program.

Sculpture by Mrs. Dorothy Greenbaum, 104 Mercer Street, with a total of an estimated 40 works which span 40 years at the Main Galleries of the New Jersey State Museum. Opening on Saturday, the exhibit will run until July 5.

Originally a painter, Mrs. Greenbaum began her sculpture career in 1927. She works with bronze, hammered lead and stone, using traditional methods for her personifications of birds, and smaller-than-life animals and for her astute revelations of human personalities. Since 1938, she has been making intaglio-relief prints.

Dorothy Greenbaum, 104 Mercer Street, has been elected to associate membership as a sculptor in the National Academy of Design, New York.

NAVAL AVIATOR: Naval Lieutenant (j.g.) Henry E. Schmidt Jr., 36, Bumford Street, with his wife, Barbara, after he was designated a Naval Aviator during ceremonies at Naval Air Station, Corpus Christi, Tex.

James B. Hoaglund, 39, Evergreen Circle, has been promoted to technical director, commercial and industrial products of the New York City headquarters of International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation.

He has worked for ITT since 1963 when the firm for which he was working, Bell and Gossett, became a part of the ITT system. Before coming to the New York office, he had been vice president and director of engineering at the company's Environmental Products Division in Philadelphia.

In his new position, Mr. Hoaglund will have worldwide technical responsibility for the company's products of heating and air conditioning equipment, heat transfer pumps, fluid-handling products and automatic controls. He and his wife have two daughters in college and a son who attends Girard College, Philadelphia.

Navy Petty Officer First Class William E. Kleuser, husband of the former Miss Judith Larson of Rocky Hill, is now serving in Vietnam with the U. S. Construction Battalion Maintenance Unit 302.

James E. Burke, 158 Springdale Road, has been elected chairman of the Johnson & Johnson Domestic Operating Company. Mr. Burke, 45, had been president of the domestic company for the past four years.

Joining Johnson & Johnson as a product director in 1953, Mr. Burke held a number of positions before becoming vice-president in 1958. In 1964 he was named executive vice-president and later general manager of domestic operations. A graduate of Holy Cross, he received a master's degree in business administration from Harvard University.

Dr. Hilton Anderson of Manasquan, psychologist with the Princeton Regional Schools, has been given the 1969 Research Award of the Rutgers chapter of the Delta Kappa Epsilon, a professional education society.

The award was made for research conducted by Dr. Anderson and presented in his doctoral dissertation: he used testing behavior as a means of assessing personality differences between a group of high school boys tending to break rules, and a group of boys who tended to obey rules.

Dr. Anderson currently serves as the staff psychologist for Johnson Park, Littlebrook and Riverside schools, and he is a member of the district research committee.

Julie S. Ellis, John D. Holder, and Linda M. Tessien are three Princeton High seniors who have been accepted to begin studies in the fall at Wesley College in Dover, Delaware.

Miss Ellis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Ellis, 78 Bertrand Drive, and Miss Tessien is the daughter of Mr. Rudolph F. Tessien of 23 Fisher Avenue. John Holder is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arlene G. Holder, 90 Shady Brook Lane.

VOLUNTEER WELCOMED: Peace Corps volunteer Joseph H. Petty, III, one of 35 volunteers arriving recently in Costa Rica, was welcomed by Joaquin Trejo, director.

The volunteers will spend two years "agricultural extensionists," working with small farmers to increase the production of corn and beans. Costa Rica currently has to import both crops. Mr. Petty is the son of Mr. Joseph Petty, Jr., 54 Spruce Street.

She is majoring in Art History.

Four young Princeton University students are among 76 winners of the Africorp Foundation Fellowships for basic research. The Foundation has announced.

The four are: Dr. William K. Attard, Assistant Professor of Mathematics; Dr. David J. Eardley, Assistant Professor of Physics; Dr. Nicholas M. Katz, Assistant Professor of Mathematics; and Dr. Jeremiah P. Ostriker, Associate Professor of Astrophysical Sciences.

The 76, representing 43 colleges and universities in the United States and Canada, will receive an average stipend of $4,750 a year for two years. The Fellowships are designed to assist the scientists in pursuing their research interests in the early state of their academic careers when many of them could not yet find adequate research support from government and other sources.

Elaine Truestell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Truestell of 99 Green Avenue, has been elected treasurer of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority at Franklin College of Indiana. As a history major, she is a member of the college's Alpha Gamma chapter.

The four are: Dr. William K. Attard, Assistant Professor of Mathematics; Dr. David J. Eardley, Assistant Professor of Physics; Dr. Nicholas M. Katz, Assistant Professor of Mathematics; and Dr. Jeremiah P. Ostriker, Associate Professor of Astrophysical Sciences.

Miss Truestell is also active in the college's class activities, in the Interfraternity Council, and the Young Republicans, the Religious Activities Board, and the Student Education Association. She is one of only five students who passed their Sophomore Comprehensive Exams with distinction last year.

Michael Cohen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Cohen, 1110 Nassau Road, has gained Cum Laude honors for the third quarter at Laurelcrest Preparatory School in Bristol, Connecticut.

A sixth-former, he has been accepted at the Universities of Wisconsin and Michigan, but has not yet made his choice.

SPORTS In Princeton

DECISION AT HAND

For The Bell Team. The extent to which Princeton's baseball team can make a run for the Eastern League title will be determined this weekend. League-leading Navy can't play Saturday afternoon for a 4 p.m. contest, while Penn, good enough to split with the previously undefeated midshipmen earlier this week, will be here Saturday at 1 for a double header.

Only Dartmouth and Navy have lost less games than the Tigers, whose power at the plate is remarkable (particularly in the case of the midshipmen Princeton teams), but whose pitching is not top drawer. Last week in three games which totalled 22 innings, the Navy crew allowed 24 runs in the process of toppling Villanova, 5-2, and Army at West Point, 5-4, and 7-4.

The three ball games are only a part of the Princeton schedule, however, intended to coincide with the school's homecoming at Princeton. Other events include tennis against Dartmouth on the University Courts at 2 and the Carnegie Cup regatta.

The first race on the lake will begin at 15, with others following at 15 minute intervals until the varsity leave the stake boats at 4. Princeton will defend the Carnegie Cup against Cornell and Yale.

BALL TEAM NOW THIRD
After Two Wins over Cadets, Steady hitting plus a vital aid from the defense has put the two teams made life relatively easy for the Princeton baseball team at West Point Saturday, although the Tigers did need a three-run rally in the top of the ninth inning to get the upset to win.

The first game was a "laffer" for Bob Wolff, who has had his problems on the mound this spring. He coasted to a 12-1 victory, largely because of the efforts of his sophomore Bob Schenck, who is currently leading the Eastern League in hitting with a mark close to .500.

The powerful Tiger junior was three for three in the opener and seven total bases) with a single, double and homer. The latter was a 390 foot clout to left, the opening field for the southbound dugout.

Jack Hitson raised his season's record to 5-0 with a victory in the second game, achieved after the cadets had tied the score at 4-4 in the top of the ninth after the fielding at short and third complicated the losers' problems, as 11 of Princeton's 19 runs were unearned.

It was Hitson, too, who pitched Princeton to a 3-2 victory over Villanova earlier in the week. Three runs in the first, aided by a pair of errors charged all the margin Hitson needed, although the insurance markers were helpful when the visitors had the tying run at the plate in the ninth. The second and third games were one way.

Hitson not the next two batters on fly balls to short and right field. He has come on strong after working largely in relief a year ago, showing good control, a fine breaking curve and adequate changeup to stay ahead of the batters.

Fryday's game against Cornell was so thoroughly rained out that the team spent the day in Binghamton, never going as far as Ithaca. It will be rescheduled if the Tigers show they can make a race of it in the next ten days.

Meanwhile, the question of possible entry in the District 11 NCAA Tournament also exists. Princeton's 11 record, going into Wednesday's game against Seton Hall, was hardly respectable, but tough opponents such as Lafayette, St. John's and Rutgers are closely interlocked with the top Eastern League games and it is possible the pitching staff can continue to win at a clip better than .500.

Black opened its schedule on April 4.

Yale, which has faded from the east's elite in recent years, is definitely the underdog. The race will start at 4, climaxing a four-evening program which includes the second annual tournament, jaysies and varsities. All distances are 2,000 meters.

Last Saturday on the choppy Charles River, Harvard defended the Compton Cup successfully against Princeton and Yale.

Conditions were poor, clear skies but strong winds — and the fine Crimson crew took 6 minutes and 40 seconds to negotiate the 2,000-meter course.

Harvard won all three races,

and Princeton deserved M.I.T. in each of them.

TRACKMAN VS. TRENTON
Notre Dame Here Tuesday
Loser in its first three dual meets with Princeton High School's track team will meet Trenton High Thursday at 3:45 on the Trenton's track.

Next the Little Tigers will play home on Tuesday to Notre Dame, also at 3:45. The meet, which was to meet with St. Anthony's has been rescheduled for Friday, May 8.

After dropping its first two meets by lopsided scores, PHS was in contention in its meet with New Brunswick last week right to the end. "We were hopeful that we might pull it out," said coach John Johnson, who watched the home team Zebras eke out a 67-59 win.

The Little Tigers swept the high jump, the first time this season, and won the pole vault, said Paul Riddell, who also won the high hurdles in 15.5. First, Daryl Boone, second, and Mark Burhoff third. New Brunswick nullified this, however, by sweeping the discus and two-mile.

In a second surprise, PHS which had failed to score a point previously in the pole vault, won the event. Sophomore Steve Woodsie vaulted 12' 6" to first Little Tiger to clear eight feet. Bill Kozchek took third. Joe Bolster continued unbeaten in the mile, and Chris Mislow won the shot for the second time in a row.

Don Owens was second in the 100 and third in the 200. Lee Adrich, moved into the broad jump by Johnson, leapt 18' 10" for his first time up to the high jump in that event, and a third in the low hurdles. Riddell was second in the 100.

Senior Scott Dougall had the lead in the 440 but through lack of experience, made a bad move on a turn and missed taking the winning by a few yards.

Ivan Parker, who has failed to match his record last year as a sophomore, captured second place in the javelin. "He had a bad day," said Ivan, who added Parker may be one of the best javelin throwers in the state. "We hasn't been able to practice that much either," said Ivan. "By this time last year, he had thrown a lot more."

Ivan also singled out sophomore Gary Asano for his progress in the discus. "For his size, he's doing a very capable job for us. I can see him getting better, he's improving

MIDDLE DISTANCE RUNNERS: Steve Foltiny (right) was second in a dispute finish in the 800 in last week's meet with New Brunswick. Judge having given the second and two others, third, Scott Dougall just missed capturing the 440 by a few yards. Little Tigers lost a close one, 67-59, just like Paul Mazzarella did." times in the second off Peter Mazzarella was an outstanding hurdler for PHS the previous three years before graduating senior year in June.

PDS NINE TAKES TWO

TIES FOR FIRST Pending the outcome of Wednesday's scheduled contest against the Hunterdon Panthers, the Princeton-Douglas baseball team found itself tied for first four days at least, after a pair of victories over Penn Jersey rivals Pennington and Princeton.

On Friday, the Blue and White will get a brother from league competition when it goes against Admira Farragut at 3:30 at home. Next Wednesday, George School will provide the opposition in another 3:30 home contest.

The two league triumphs put PDS at the top of the League's standings with 21-2, while along with Germantown Friends, which dealt the Panthers their only loss, Pennington lost its first to Princeton last week.

On Saturday, PDS will meet Pennington at 3:30. The Panthers got a break at the beginning when Pennington's star 17-year-old pitcher, responsible for all its wins to date, chose the day to suddenly get married.

As things started out it appeared that he wouldn't be missed. Perkiomen scored three runs in the first three innings, but got an unearned run in the fourth. Then Kirk Moore scored an error. The Panthers then tied it in the fourth on singles by Booth, Claghorn, Moore, and Rosenberg.

In the sixth, Claghorn and Moore combined three safeties and a walk to bring up 12 men on base in each game, but the team is beginning to hit more. Coach John Ivers

PHS TO FACE RIVALS

In a doubleheader, the Princeton High School lacrosse team will oppose two area rivals next week.

Friday, April 27, Maria Tro-man and her team will travel to Princeton Day School for a 3:30 contest, and on Wednesday they will entertain Hun School, also at 3:30. In addition, on Monday, PHS will play Montclair here in a game that was originally scheduled April 25.

Last week, the Little Tigers picked up their second win of the season by defeating Visitation, 10-0.
Newton, 4-2. Midfielder Phil Nolner scored for PHS in the first period and the Blue and White never trailed thereafter.

The next three games will be by attackmen confidence that the PHS offense, which suffered the biggest loss through graduation, is coming around. Scoring were Jeff Bollenline, Hugh Fitzpatrick on an assist by Mark Rosso and Tim Taggart.

PHS was forced to go without three of its starters. Phil Matthews was sidelined again by back trouble, and attackman Mark Troutman reported that he may be forced to miss the remainder of the season. Craig Singer was out with the flu and Maury Peleg was hurt in a traffic accident.

The win was Princeton High's second in six starts; Newton dropped to 0-3.

HUN FACES PHS NINE

On Friday, the Hun School baseball team, which has been struggling in the early going, and Princeton High School, the victim of a steady rain, will tangle at the PHS field Friday at 3:30.

Hun, presently 1-3 in Pennsylvania League play, will go after their second win of the year Tuesday afternoon at 3:15 in a league contest. This Wednesday afternoon at 3:30,
Hun was scheduled to meet rival Princeton Day School on the latter's diamond.

Last week, Hun lost — in the last inning — to Germantown Friends 2-1. Although the sun had made one of its rare appearances Wednesday, Hun's scheduled game with Friends Central that day was postponed to May 11 because rain the day before had left the Hun field too wet.

Against the home team Quakers, Hun's Mike Maguire, picking up where Princeton left off 4-0 last year, finally got a hit. Hun had scored the game's only run in the fourth when Mike Guadagno singled home Rick Ziegler.

However, in the final frame, Germantown bunched two of its six hits for one run and then brought home the winning run on a squeeze bunt. Hun's Mike Maguire was the only one not at all surprised. Hun coach Dave Leete. In addition to Guadagno's single, Hun was limited to a single by Al Chaloux and a double by Mike Maguire. Hun picked up the loss, his second against one win, while Germantown's Roger Burnham (20) got the win.

winning a pair of golf shoes.

 Second and third round matches are scheduled for this weekend, with the semi-finals and finals on May 9 and 10.

TRYOUTS THIS WEEKEND
 For West Windsor Baseball
 Tryouts for the West Windsor-Rumson Baseball League will be held on this Saturday and Sunday, at 1 p.m. on the Maurice Hawk School field, Clarksville Road.

All boys 13 to 18 years old from West Windsor and Plains-boro are eligible to try out for the four teams in the league.
 Every boy now assigned to a team must try out to be eligible for selection by the coaches.
 Applications for tryouts are available from William P. Mooney, league president, or can be filled out at Hawk field on tryout day.

Teams in the league this season and managers are: Lucas Hardware, Andy Drummond; Lions Club, Tim Dalton; Will's Shell, Jack Ward; and Harbourside Freshmen. The Spring League play will begin on May 1, with weekday games starting at 6:15 p.m. and Sunday games at 4 p.m. Saturdays will be used for rainout games.

Tryouts also will be held for West Windsor's Senior Babe
 Ruth team at 4 p.m. Sunday, May 3, on the Hawk School field. West Windsor boys, only, aged 16 to 18, are eligible for senior tryouts.

STUDENTS NEEDED
 To Teach Tennis. The Community Tennis Program is now accepting applications from students in junior high through college, who wish to teach tennis this summer.
 The 'Leader Corps' of the tennis program has long been an opportunity to earn summer money and learn tennis, for students who may be too young to hold regular jobs.

To qualify, applicants must donate at least 50 hours as assistants, be recommended and considered for paying positions.
 Payment after training is on a sliding scale which increases according to a student's grade in school.

Many graduates of the program now hold high-paying positions as camp counselors or club pros. A few will return to the Community Tennis Program this summer, as full-time staff.

These included Karen Fitzpark, from Duke University; Linda Frisch, from Princeton University; Carol Wetzell (Connecticut College); Kea Klothen (Swarthmore College); and Anne Bresnahan, who will graduate from Bryn Mawr College where she majored in physical education as a result of her start in the program here.

Working full-time for the Leader Corps will be Debbie Enderle of Trinity College, and Anne Rimarlove from the University of Pennsylvania.

In addition to the Leader Corps, there will be Debbie Enderle, who is opening for a full-time job for a college varsity level boy, and for a high school varsity player this summer. Anyone interested in applying for the Leader Corps or for the program for these two openings, should contact Mrs. Lewis S. Kraft, program director, at 924-4737.

The Leader Corps Program for younger students will still allow further personal work on one's own game, as well as an opportunity for exchange matches and tournament play for those who wish to compete. This has become a popular program and, last year, 60 junior high and high school students participated.

Meanwhile, the Spring program already underway has a staff of 80 instructors to handle 1,000 students per week. Of these, 100 are still one-on-one with their students. These are Leslie and Bob Aldridge, Jill Berkenthal, Carrie Bolster, Dick Boklage, Mardi Considine,
 Kim Considine, John and Sue Davis, Bruce Dickey, Karen Durbin, Margy Erdman, Jane
 Gallagher, Michel and Nickie Glouchevitch, Charley Goheen, Randy Gulek, Penny Henry,
 Linda Hirsch, Linda Koenig, Lillie Lit, Lynne, Richard Macgree, Harriette McLaughlin, Bob Miller, Hope Miller, Pamela Myers, Beth Rimarlove, Caitlin Schaefer, Chris Smith, Joanne and Hank Straton, Danny Thomas, Randy Thomas, Steve Tobolsky, and Ann Whittall.

DOGS ON SUNDAY

At Princeton, on Sunday, more than 3,600 dogs will compete Sunday in the Trenton Kennel Club's All-Breed Dog Show and Obedience Trials at Washington Park and Moore State Park. The down-to-dusk judging and show will culminate in a "Best of Show" award at 7 p.m.

Dr. Armour C. Wood, president of the sponsoring organization for the show, said the show announced that 122 breeds will be represented in all. There will be more German Shepherds

 (18) and fewer Komondors
 (12) than any other year.

Ample parking available free

this year at the park, which is located on Bear Tavern Road,

Route 579, five miles north of Trenton.

BOWLING NOTES

2D Hall Near End. Next week —hunger night—will mark the end of play in the second half of the Nassau and A Leagues.

The Nassau and A Leagues Garage and Grover are the only teams left in the running. Grover, which trails Tiger, 70-66, needs to win all three games.

 was Bill Wray. George Luck, Ed Lemont, Bob Miesinski, Ray
 Mount and Don Koch.

No. 1/2 has the lead with 59 points. No. 1 (55) and No. 3 (50) follow.

Greg Kline with a 104 win high in the Blue Angels H-13 League. Peter Thompson and Craig Singer had 137 and 145.
 Tosses and Taps are tied for the lead at 10-18. King Pins has 19, and Mixers is a distant last with two.

in the Business Women's League, George Drummond was tops with 194-171. Betty Kleben 193, Carol Hanley 187, and Dot Thorsell 180. Others: Lillian Burrough, 177; Betty Lurie, 166; Melinda Cruiser, 174; Dot and 170; Charlotte Rossi and Barbara Pfeifer, 166; and Dale Forsythe, 165.

University Cleaners with 52 points is the league leader. Vinger for second place are Carunia (45) and Rocky Hill Inn and Nini Plymouth (44) each.

ROSSO'S UNCHALLENGED
 In Bowling League. With Bob Clegg leading a commanding 30-point lead in the Women's Bowling League, interest has shifted to individual performances.

Marilyn Murphy of Cranbury holds the high single-game record of 204. Mary Silvestre of Rossos had two fine games of 181-169 for a total of 566 pins, and teammates Flo Ivens and Sara Rose had 171 and 166 respectively.

Jean Foster of Swift's Colonial Diner fashioned a 172. Three from Rocky & Sons were Jean Foster (163), Lillian Coleman (161) and Evelyn Sailey (161).
 Rossos' claimed the high game of 288. Cranbury Bank had 286, and Rossos 282.

Trailing Rossos in the standings are Rocky & Sons, Pin Pals

Rev. E. J. Gwynn. The Rev. E. John Gwynn will be ordained to the ministry of the Episcopal Church, 11 a.m., on Saturday, at the First Presbyterian Church, 100 Nassau St., Rev. John M. Burgee, D.D., Bishop of Massachusetts, will preside.

Mr. Gwynn has been serving at the First Church since when he was graduated from the Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, Mass., and was ordained to the deaconate. He is assistant to the deacon with special responsibility for community affairs and will remain at Trinity after ordination.

Bishop Burgess, elected to head the Massachusetts diocese last spring, will be performing his first ordination service since his installation in January. Mr. Gwynn, a native of Glen Alpine, Md., is a graduate of Towson State College. He is canonically resident in the Massachusetts diocese.

The service will be conducted according to the proposed "Liturgical Commission Revision for Ordinations." Music will be provided by members of the New Haven Choral Society, as well as other musicians. The Trinity Men and Boys' Choir, directed by James Litton, will sing.

The executive director of the Union of Black Clergy and Laity, the Rev. James R. Woodruff, will preach the sermon. Other participants are the Very Rev. Harvey H. Guther, Dean of the Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge; the Rev. Gavraud S. Wilmore, chairman of the division of Church and Race of the United Presbyterian Church USA; the Rev. Dr. R. Gordon B. Condie, of the Executive Council of the Episcopal Church, and the Rev. Canon James R. White more, rector of Trinity.

Other participants will be Joseph P. Moore, assistant dean of students at Princeton Theological Seminary; the Rev. E. Ruby Auer, vicar of Trinity; the Rev. Dr. A. Benard of Episcopal Theological School; the Rev. Edward Rodman of St. Paul's Church, New Haven, Conn.; the Rev. P. Kingsley Smith of Trinity Church, Princeton, N.J.; the Rev. Dr. J. Travani, of the Mass. Presbytery; and Chase and Michael P.G. Ran-dolph, both of Cambridge, Mass.

"NEEDS OF OUR TOWN"

is Fellowship Day. Topic: Church and United Nations. The unit will sponsor a May Fellowship Day luncheon at 12:30 p.m. this Friday at All Saints' Chapel. The program will feature a panel discussion, "On the Needs of Our Town."

Mr. Prince Taylor will preside at the meeting. The worship service will be led by Mrs. W. R. Brearley, and the business session by the president, Mrs. Orpha C. Hopper.

Participants will be Mrs. Mary Sage of the State Training School for Boys, Skillman; Mrs. Eric James of Recording for the Blind; and the Rev. Robert Martin, chairman of the Princeton Interfaith Council.

The Summer Camp Fund for underprivileged children will again be the focus of the offering. The Fund is a special project of Church Women United benefiting nearly 200 children during the past ten years. Mrs. Janet Barnes of the YWCA will speak about the girls' camp, where a number of the children are sent.

Individuals and organizations wishing to support the camp fund are invited to contact Mrs. Harry Hill, chairman.

TO HEAR WOMAN MINISTER At St. Andrew's Meeting, the Rev. Mrs. Carol Kepler will dress the annual meeting of the Women's Association of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church on Monday evening at the Church. The service begins at 7:30 p.m. with a social hour. The officers and the Rev. Mrs. Kepler speak at 8 p.m. on "The Role of Women in the Church." Former pastor of the United Presbyterian Church at Manasquan, the Rev. Mrs. Kepler is Chapel there will be an address by Ian R. Walker, executive director of the Soil Conservation Service. He is former geologist of the United States Department of Agriculture soil conservation service.

"MISSION IMPERATIVE"
To Set Goals for 1970. "What in the name of God is all this 'Mission Imperative' business?" a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Princeton, member of Miss Louise L. Goss, staff member of the church publication, "First."

"Mission Imperative," she replies, "is your church's attempt to discover what in the name of God we ought to be doing during the 1970's."

Study groups on Christian concern reported this month on their winter-long research to the Rev. Dr. Donald M. Meisel at a between-services. Suday a day meeting.

Participants included "Taxation of Church Property," a group chaired by Elmer E. Chase; "Poverty," convened by Elvyn G. Maley; "Housing," led by Peter White, and "Public Dissent," with Peter Viebig as convener.

Groups already operating in the church have held their initial study groups, reviewing the recommendations and directions for the 1970's, initially for the first five years of the '70s.

The full congregation joined this Tuesday evening in a series of neighborhood meetings scheduled to be held throughout the Princeton community.

Discussion leaders presented proposals, seeking reactions and additions from the congregation.

"Concerned Christians, troubled and frustrated by what they see in the church should be," Mrs. Frederick Stolzman stated in the April issue of "First."

"Recognizing that a many directions of the church are far from the yet seen by the church in the one true source of life and hope."

RUMMAGE SALE SET
By Rocky Hill Church. The annual rummage sale sponsored by the Women's Guild of the First Presbyterian Church will be held on Friday and Saturday, May 8 and 9, in the church hall.

Mrs. Raymond Whalock, Jr. and Mrs. William Lucas are co-chairmen. Hours of the sale are 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. on the opening day, and from 10 a.m. until 2 on the second day.

SPRING RITE PLANNED
At All Saints' Chapel. This Sunday is Rogation Sunday on the Episcopal calendar, and an outdoor procession of clergy, choir and congregation of the church is planned to be held at 10 a.m. between services. Prayers for the success of spring plantings will be offered and a tree will be planted on the Chapel grounds.

The Rev. A. Orley, rector of All Saints' Church, will preside.

Rogation Sunday has long been observed in the denomination as a seed-time festival, and in communion with certain other church festivals, represents a Christianization of an ancient spring rite.

At the 11 a.m. service in the

secretary of the women's department in the parish educational division of the denomination's Board of Christian Education. She organized a Head Start program for three years, overseeing 20 volunteers, and as chairman of adult work in Monroe Presbytery as well as an active member of the church, she has been concerned for the role of women in church and society.

The Rev. Mrs. Kepler was graduated in business administration from Drexel Institute of Technology in Philadelphia. She was graduated from Princeton Theological Seminary in 1964, and in 1967, in theology and psychology. From The Seminary in 1967, her master's thesis was titled, "The Christian Doctrine of Hope and its Psychological Implications."

She is the wife of the Rev. Thomas Kepler and the mother of three children.

Women from First Presbyterian, Rockaway and Witherspoon will be invited to share in the program. Mrs. David M. Hay is leader of Circle 3, which will be hostesses for the afternoon.

AGENDA Matters up for consideration range from intramural problems to the role of First Church in the community and the neighborhood.

"Is there an optimum size for our congregation beyond which we should think of satellite or independent units?" is a question posed by the nominations and session organization.

"What is the security of the church?" the same group asks.

Volunteer aides to the ministerial staff are suggested, as are higher financial investment in fringe benefits, and stabilization of the ministerial staff, which may reduce custodial and office personnel needs.

The role of the church's governing board, the session, needs to be made clearer to the congregation, the group suggests.

And the same group questions the double standard for youth and young adults.

"Causes Celebres"
The adult program committee of All Saints' Church is offering a soap box oratory opportunity on Friday, May 8, at its "Causes Celebres: A Festival of All Community Groups, clubs and organizations are invited to promote their causes through oratory, placards and debate. Registration is free for all participants. They are invited to attend to learn of some of today's pressing needs. The event begins at 7.

Cause promoters are asked to call Alice (224-6326) or the church office (224-6641) to give notice that they will take part. There are no fees involved. Refreshments will be served.

Membership, according to the Rev. Mrs. Carol Kepler, the church treasurer, has increased only 200, to 1,668, in the past ten years at a time when the Princeton community has mushroomed. Yet First Church records a turnover of approximately 500 families, reflecting the short-term residency of many Princeton families. The membership study group seeks ways to bring new members quickly into church activities.

And the church school, organized by the Cooperative Family Education sub-committee, reports 411 children from 197 families in overcrowded quarters. "Either more space or rescheduling is a must."

adult applicants for membership in the church, and suggests a balance of fellowship, worship and formal classes for the senior highs.

Adults. Encounter groups give unique practice in dialogue and discussion. The committee report states, "However, 'Is there a basic need of adult Christians in their study?' is a question it submits to the committee."

The desire to uncover "publics" is cited by the hospitality and student relations group, meaning student nurses, service men, young, single, working adults, and the newly retired.

Strengthening the Princeton Interfaith Council is proposed by the inter-church relations group, as well as continued participation in the Princeton Presbyterian Commission. It would also like to make the national observance of Church Union more relevant to the concern.

The Cooperative Nursery School, founded 14 years ago, now involves 88 children, six paid teachers and meets in the Princeton Presbyterian Church. Its study group department has expanded and forces the need for a building or a large house with a lawn. The Women's Association, the Complex Club and the World-Affairs Committee also have proposals and questions for consideration at the neighborhood meetings.

And the stewardship committee is asking for a 1970 membership pledge of $100,000. The various committees may plan it also the need for a fund raised by special pledges to meet the capital needs of the next five years, an endowment fund, an expanded memorial fund, and a plan for possible taxation of church property.

The Wind-up In late April, according to the church calendar, "First" will be presented to the various committees. It will be reviewed by the committees and organizations. Early in May, the session will review the Mission Imperative goals and plan the budget for 1970.

And late in May, according to Elder Gerald A. Speedy, "We will hold the largest congregational meeting in the history of the church to adopt our commitment for the Seventies."

Obituaries

Professor Victor Olgyay, 59, associate professor of architecture and urban planning at Princeton University, died April 23 at his home in Hightstown after a brief illness.

A native of Budapest, Hungary, Professor Olgyay was widely known for what he termed the "bioclimatic approach" to architecture, which deals with the interaction of natural factors of climate, light and sound.

He was educated at the Royal Hungarian Academy of Technology. With his brother, the late Aladar Olgyay, he carried on graduate study at Columbia before immigrating to the United States at the 1939 New York World's Fair. The brothers were architects for a number of buildings in New York and New Jersey and in Istanbul, Turkey. They returned to the United States in 1947, joining the faculties of Notre Dame University and M.I.T. before coming to Princeton in 1953 as research associates.

They conceived and developed Princeton's architectural laboratory; the machine known as the "bioclimatic machine" can reproduce varying thermal conditions of any climate on buildings. Aladar subsequently left, engaging in private practice.

In 1955 Victor became a research associate with the rank of associate professor, and in 1958 was promoted to associate professor. In recent years, he was a teacher and consultant in climatic design in Latin America and the Middle East. He was also a consultant to various agencies in this country and abroad.

He was the author of "Design with Climate," and with his brother, published "The Works of Architects Olgyay" and several other books.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Ilona C. Olgyay; his three children, Nira, Cora and Daniel; a nephew, a son-in-law in Princeton University Chapel.

Alfred W. Packer, 70, of 74 Palmer Avenue, died April 24 in Princeton Hospital. He was owner of Packer Transfer Company of Princeton.

A lifelong resident of the Princeton area, Mr. Packer was a founder and chief member of Engine Company No. 1 for 49 years.

He was a founder and former member of the Princeton First Aid and Rescue Squad, a member of the Exempt Firemen's Association and of Trinity Episcopal Church.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Alfred W. Packer, two daughters, Miss Barbara Parker, and Mrs. Ralph E. Kleber, both of Princeton; three grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson of Morristown.

The service will be held in the Methodist Funeral Home, Interment was in St. Paul's Cemetery.

Mrs. Madeline A. Wright, 77, died April 27 at her home, 24 Church Street, Kingston, after a brief illness. She was the wife of Douglas Wright.

Born in Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Wright lived in Kingston for 40 years. She was a native of Madison, Wis., and Passaic.

Also surviving are a son, Lloyd D. Wright of Passaic; two daughters, Mrs. Mary E. Hanrahan of Madison, and Mrs. Sherman Elsenerholt of Sharon Hill, Pa.; two grandchildren; two brothers, G. M. Burch of Pasadena and Jay L. Burch of Arcadia, Calif.; and a son-in-law, Mr. J. Miller of Ossining, N.Y.

The service and interment were held at the convenience of the family. Arrangements were made by the Kimble Funeral Home.

Albert Steiner, 63, of Mount Penn, Pennington, died April 27. He was a native of Philadelphia and a former manager of the Bulk Plant and Terminal Section of the Sun Oil Company in Philadelphia.

Born in Philadelphia, Mr. Steiner lived in Pennington for 40 years. He joined Sun Oil in 1911 as the first warehouse superintendent in the sales department and was with the firm for 40 years. A former member of the Princeton Lions Club, Mr. Steiner supervised construction of the Boy Scout building in Pennington, a Lions Club project.

Mrs. William F. Brown of Pennington; three grandsons, five great-grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Christian Bauer of Pennington.

The service will be held at 2 p.m. this Thursday in the Princeton United Methodist Church, Main Street, the Rev. David W. Allen of the Central Baptist Church of Ewing, officiating. Interment will be in Pennington Cemetery.

Mrs. Deborah E. Mullen, 81, died April 26 at the home of her son, Daniel J. Mullen of Route 1. She was the widow of Daniel Mullen.

Born in Philadelphia, she lived for 20 years in Trenton before coming to Princeton 17 years ago.

Also surviving is a daughter, Mrs. Eleanor C. Mullen.

Requiem mass was celebrated in St. Paul's Roman Catholic Church. Interment was in Calvary Cemetery, Florence, N.J., under direction of the Kimble Funeral Home.

Mrs. Mary R. Bruce, 84, a Princeton resident since 1926, died April 26 in the Princeton Nursing Home.

She was a native of Scotland and a member of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

Surviving are her husband, John S. Bruce, and a daughter, Mrs. Frank Updike of Pennington.

Memorial services were held at St. Andrew's Church. Interment was in Princeton Cemetery under direction of the Kimble Funeral Home.

Mrs. Mary H. Smith, 73, of Princeton Arms West, Cranbury, died April 26 in Princeton Hospital.

Surviving are two sons, Roy and William, with whom she lived, and CPO Harold L. Smith of Pearl Harbor, six grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. Porter Ellwood of Louisiana, Mo., and a brother, Harry Quade of Bowling Green, Mo.

The service was held in Louisville, Mo., with interment in Riverview Cemetery there. The Kimble Funeral Home was in charge of local arrangements.

Lester B. Chamberlin, 71, of Woodstock-Hopewell Road, died April 26 in Merwick, the medical section of Princeton Hospital.

Born in Harbordown, he was a lifelong resident of Hopewell Township. A past member of the Knights of Columbus of Cypress Lodge 166, F&AM, of Pennington.

Two brothers, Fra H. Chamberlin and his wife, and Orvalle H. Chamberlin of Los Angeles, Calif., as well as two sisters, Mrs. Graver C. Williamson and Mrs. Alfred H. Runkle, both of Lambertville.

The service will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Wilson Home for Funerals, Pennington, the Rev. Robert Beringer of the First Presbyterian Church of Hopewell officiating. Interment will be in Ewing Cemetery.

"HANGING BASKET" is Hospital Fete Feature. The traditional garden feature at the Hospital Fete will be noted by a profusion of colorful plants trailing from hanging baskets.

The Fete is set for Saturday, June 13, at the fete grounds, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The "Hanging Basket," as the garden section is called, will be for many varieties of flowering plants, such as purple marguerite, pink, red and geraniums, lobelia, orange hantana and yellow marigolds.

There will also be a selection of books on horticulture and garden design, as well as unique floral containers by committee members. Mrs. Porter Nalle Lee is chairman. Co-chairman is Mrs. R. B. Aall. Gardeners will find tools, safe sprays, planting tubs of concrete or wicker, decorative flower pots, bird baths, animal garden ornaments and even hammocks and wicker garden accessories.

Prizes will be given to the best of a Regency garden will be available. Bouying will not be available, but on a bonus of a free bird bath will be given to anyone who purchases a $100.00 gift certificate.

The committee has arranged that cars may be driven up to the tent to facilitate purchases. It also reminds gardeners that purchases at the fete are tax deductible.

THREE TO STUDY THE ROCK MARATHON
—T. Cahill has appointed his predecessor, Richard J. Hughes, along with University President Robert F. Goheen and Princeton attorney Archibald S. Alexander, Jr., to the 32-man New Jersey Tax Policy Committee.

The group is expected to review the state's tax laws from source to constituents, and make recommendations for future improvements. An over-haul of the existing "inequitable structure" is "long over-due," the governor said in creating the committee by a recent executive order.

The group will have the power to conduct public hearings in its sessions and make available its distribution of the burden of state costs. Interim reports will be issued as the detailed study progresses.

PERSEVERANCE PAYS OFF
—For '69 Rock Marathon Winner.

She was a native of Scotland and a member of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

Surviving are her husband, John S. Bruce, and a daughter, Mrs. Frank Updike of Pennington.

Memorial services were held at St. Andrew's Church. Interment was in Princeton Cemetery under direction of the Kimble Funeral Home.

"Winning" was 95% of the world to us. It was really an accomplishment we had been striving for," said band director Bob Kurman recently. "After we won, everyone knew us when we mentioned the band's name and remembered we had won at the Rock. It gave us excellent exposure to contemporaries and older people."

The band's name, however, was soon to be changed. The winning group of Norman, David Mach, Bob Severson and Todd Marshall was forced to break up when they went off to college in the fall. But, Korman, lead clarinetist, Mike Korman of American University and Severson, organ, at nearby George Washington University were able to regroup.

Now, this nucleus were Alya Love, bass, a senior at Princeton Day School, and Hugh Downing, guitar, a junior high school teacher in Montgomery Township. —

Now known as the "Phoenix" because of the myth of the Phoenix rising from the ashes to rebuild her city, the group plays in the Princeton area and at the University of Delaware. Practice sessions in Princeton or Washington are held every weekend; the band does not have an engagement.

All the members of the band are serious musicians and hope to turn professional, keeping the group intact.

Under the motto "new rock sound," the band is striving for "a more intense above our old music." In Korman's words, "we are attempting to scan the whole horizon and pick the best from it." The group does not want to be the big name bands, but seeks to develop its own sound. Also Korman says that they do their own arranging and are beginning to write some songs. "The music, in general, this material of the 'Phoenix' is more complex than that of the old 'Null Set.'

The entry date has been extended so any band interested in participating for this year's Rock Marathon Contest should call Mrs. John Van Cleve, 921-6664 by Friday.

NORTHWEST TOWNSHIP

— a honey of a house! Light, bright and breezy, with large areas of glass, elegant decor — and an informal atmosphere. Four bedrooms, small library that can double as guest room, three baths, two fireplaces. Both living room and master bedroom open to a fenced and decked pool — in itself another room for summer living. New on the market at $82,500.

DRAMATIC CONTEMPORARY

one and a half wooded acres, convenient Princeton Township location. Exciting open stair well, sweeping walls of glass looking out on pretty terrace, reflection pool, imaginative landscaping. Three bedrooms (master with fireplace), two and a half bath. Offered at $85,000.

2 MORVEN PLACE

— a walk everywhere location. And a very special home for the buyer who wants the charm of large, high-ceilinged rooms, many beautiful fireplaces together with the modern advantage of central air conditioning. Three to five bedrooms, four and a half baths. Small but private grounds. Summer occupancy. $120,000.

TRADITIONAL AND MODERN

are magically blended in this handsome brick Georgian colonial. The light and open feeling of contemporary design are combined with the conventional center hall layout. Excellent kitchen, many baths, a total of seven bedrooms. All on a half acre plus lot in Princeton's western section — terraced and landscaped to give privacy and a long view. $135,000.

NOT AN ARCHITECT?

Don't worry about it. We have a very nice building lot in Hopewell Township near the Washington Crossing Road all set to go. We can help with house plans. This is an awfully good buy at $5,500

ATTENTION INVESTORS

A 5-unit apartment house one block from Nassau Street close to Westminster College. Don't let the outside appearance fool you. Sure enough, the building needs a "face lifting" but the live apartments are in nice condition. Besides offering tenants a bit of charm, a nice back yard and convenience to town, it offers the investor a good opportunity. Offered at $35,000

UNIQUE CRANBURY TOWNHOUSE

A very appealing old Colonial on a convenient side street in the heart of Cranbury. Living room with fireplace, dining room, bright kitchen. Den and a bedroom with a full bath round out the first floor. The second floor has one very large panelled bedroom, full bath and a second attractive bedroom. Large dry cellar. New siding. Two terraces in the enclosed back yard. Offered for the first time at $49,500

We are pleased to welcome to our staff of sales people Johanna Friedman and Thora Young, who were formerly associated with Middlesex Realty Company.

WHERE . . .

WHERE ELSE . . .

But at Country Antiques can you find . . .

Bronze Pekingese (Cellini studies) signed by Sally Dunham, circa 1900. An early sampler dated 1768, therefore a truly rare one in reasonable condition considering its age.

Quaint and appealing painting of young student and a printing of the Ten Commandments on an old hand hem-stitched linen handkerchief, well framed and probably dated about 1800.

A double size lap desk or most likely a captain's desk; brass name plate and corners, perfect condition, complete as to ink well and absurdly attractive pen wiper (interesting because of early pieces of fabric).

A small glass bottle, blown, tear drop stopper about size of liquor decanter — certainly very early, possibly Spiegel.

Do you have a European holiday on your desk?
...or a Rand-McNally atlas?

Several weeks ago, all Tip-Top customers of The Thorne Pharmacies got a piece of blue paper with their statement on which was a six-digit number. This was not just another enclosure. It was a chance to win an all expense-paid trip for two to Lucerne and Vienna. There are eight (8) lucky numbers posted in each store. Each of these is entitled to a beautiful Rand-McNally atlas and not many have been claimed. From these winners will be chosen three trips for two. (There are other pharmacies participating) It's for real . . . two years ago, a lucky couple from Nassau Street saw London, Amsterdam and Brussels as guests of Tip-Top and Thorne's. May 3rd is the last day . . . so dig out that letter and come in for a look. Your number may have been posted.
